SIRS,

HAVING many times considered of the large Extent of the Constables Office, and how little skill or knowledge many of you have, who are often called to take upon you the same Office, and also how few Authors there be who have writ on this Subject, Mr. Lambert, Mr. Wingate and Mr. Shephard being the Chief, whose Rules at this day are very unsafe for the Constables to square their Actions by: for Mr. Lambert's Book, being a Discourse principally of the Common Law Cases, is now much altered by Statute since, and that Book of the Office of a Constable Fathered upon Mr. Wingate, I am verily perswaded was none of his Work; for there are some unwarrantable Authorities and gross Errors in it, which could not have slipped his ingenious Pen if the Work had been his; and for Mr. Shephard's Book, it is stuff full of Acts and Ordinances of that Convention at Westminster, (which in the late times of Usurpation and Rebellion was owned for a Parliament) which Ordinances are now of no force; Therefore none of these being safe or warrantable Rules for the Constables to walk by, but blind Guides to lead them into the by-paths and crooked Meanders of many Errors; I thought thereupon that some little Treatise of this Subject might not only prove very useful, but also very beneficial for the generality of People of this Kingdom; which consideration hath occasioned me to publish this small unpolished Epitome; and though I know the Book will fall under many hard Censures of those who are far better able to undertake the Work; yet

I hope, Dear Friends, my willingness to contribute any thing to your Service, though but a Mite, doth claim your favourable Acceptance of my pains; Remembring the old saying —est voluisse satis, and there is nothing of so little regard, but hath something of worth in it, and I despair not of some profit hence to you for whom it is intended, and for whose ease, satisfaction and direction it was collected and published by him, kind Friends, whose ambition and desire is, and shall be.

CONSTABLES, &c.

These High Constables were first ordained to be chosen by the Statute of Winchester and they were to make view

CHAP. I.

Of the Derivation of the word Constable, how many sorts of Constables, the duty of the Office, the several Appellations of this Officer in several places, who ought to be chosen to the said Office, and how and where to be sworn, with the form of the Constables Oath.

TH E word Constable is derived of compounded of two old Saxon words, Cunnige, or Kinlidge, which signifies holding, and Stable signifying Stability, shewing that these ancient Officers were reputed ted to be as the stability or stay of the King and Kingdom: Co. 4. Part. Inst. fol. 123. Lamb. Office of Const. 5. & Dalton's 7. P. Chap. 16. fol. 46.

There are only two sorts of Constables, of whose Office this Treatise maketh particular mention, and that is High Constables of Hundreds, and Petty Constables in Towns and Parishes.

Now by the opinion of some men, these High Constables were first ordained to be chosen by the Statute of Winchester, and they were to make view of Armour twice every year, and to present before the Justices assigned defaults of Armour, Watches, Highways, Hue and Cry; and also such as lodged Strangers for whom they would not answer. Lamb. 5. Rastall 379. C. D. 13. E. 1. C. 6. Dalton's 7. P. Ch. 16. fol. 46.

And that the Petty Constables in Towns and Parishes, were after devised for the aid of the High Constables of Hundreds, about the beginning of the Reign of King Edward the Third. See Lamb. Duty Const. pag. 9.

But others are of opinion, that these

High

High Constables were Conservators of the Peace within their several Hundreds and Limits, by the ancient Common Law. Crompt. 6. & 222. 12. H. 7. fol. 18.

And that whereas the Sheriffs of Counties at the first had the Government of their Counties committed to them, that afterwards by reason of the multitude of people, it being then too great a task for one man to undertake, thereupon Hundreds were deduced and derived out of the Counties, and in every one of them was ordained a Conservator of the Peace, who was called the High Constable; and after this Boroughs or Towns were made, and within every one of them also was ordained a Conservator of the Peace, who is called the Petty Constable: and this was long before the time of King Edward the Third, as appears by the derivation of the words, and that they were in the time of the Saxons, so that it may seem as well the High Constables, as the Petty Constables and their third Authorities, were by the Common Law; and that the old Statutes concerning them, are but a Recital of the High ancient Common Law, 12. H. 7. fol. 181

a. Dalton's 7. P. Chap. 16. fol. 46.

Now there be other Officers of much like Authority to the Constables, as the Bursholders in Kent, the third Burrough in Warwickshire, and the Tythingman, Burrough-head, or Headburrough or Chief Pledge in other places; but yet the Office of a Constable is distinct and (as it seemeth) is of greater Authority then these other: for it is held by some that these Bursholders, Thirdburroughs, Tythingmen, &c. being in a Town or Parish where a Constable is, that in such case they cannot meddle, because the Constables be (in comparison of them) Head Officers, and that the others are but as Assistants to the Constables in all Services of his Office when the Constable is present, and in his absence then these others are to attend the service; and that there are many other things which the Constables may do, and wherewith the Bursholders and the rest cannot meddle at all; and yet in Towns where there be no Constables, and that the Bursholders, Tythingmen, &c. be there the only Officers for the Peace, as also in such case where the Power or Authority of a Burtholder, Tythingman, &c. is declared to be equal with the power of the Constable, in all such cases and things, their Office and Authority be in a manner all one. See 1. fac.

C. 7. Lamb. pag. 4, 6, 9, 51, 52, 53, 54, 55. Dalton's 7. P. Chap. 1. fol. 3, 4.

Where any Statute doth appoint offenders to be punished by the Constable, or other inferiour Officer, in such case the Tythingman, Headburrrough, &c. may do it, for they are supposed to be inferiour Officers to the Constable. Dalton's 7. P. Chap. 1. fol. 4.

Note that these Officers are to be attendant to Court Leets, Justices of the Peace, and Coroners, for the executing of their Warrants, within their several Precincts.

And now as to the choyce of these Constables, you shall understand that the Law requireth that every Constable be Idoneus homo, that is, apt and fit for the execution of the said Office, and he is said in Law to be Idoneus, who is indued with these three things, honesty, knowledge and ability. Co. 8. Lib. Rep. fol. 41. in Griestlyes case there.

First, he ought to have Honesty to execute his Office truly, without malice, affection or partiality. Secondly, Knowledge to understand what he ought to do. And lastly, Ability as well in substance or estate, as also in body, that so he may attend and execute his Office diligently, and not, through impotency of body or want, to neglect the place; for Constables chosen out of the meaner sort, they are either ignorant what to do, or dare not do what they should, or are not able to spare the time to execute the Office: they ought therefore to be of the ablest sort of men, and are not to be chosen either by House or other Custom, if they be not fit persons for the Office. Co. 8. Lib. rep fol. 41.

And if any one shall be chosen Constable, which is not thus qualified and enabled, he may by Law be discharged of his said Office, and another fit man may be appointed in his place. Co. 8. Lib. Rep. fol. 42.

Clergy-men, Justices of the Peace, Lawyers, Physicians, Attorneys, Women, whether Maids or Widows, Madmen, Infants, old, sick, decrepid persons, sons, nor poor people, are not to be chosen to the Office of Constable:

And note, that a man is to serve th's Office in respect of his personal abode and place of Resiency, and not in respect of his Land in another place, for if he have Lands in one p'ace, and keep house in another place, he must serve where he lives, and not where his Lands lie.

A custom in a Parish or Town, that the Office of Constable shall go by the house is not good; for if a woman have an house there, she is eligible, which is against Law; but a custom that every man, sufficient in the place, shall serve the Office himself, or find a sufficient man to serve it, may be good. Cro. T. Part. Rep. fol. 283.

A Leet choosing unable or unfit Constables is cause of forfeiture of the Leet, and such choice is void; and two Justices of Peace, upon complaint to them made, may remove such a Constable, and choose and swear a new one. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 16. fol. 47. Steel's Rep. fol. 21. Mich. 22. Car. 1. B. R. Bolsted's D. Part. Rep. fol. 174.

The High Constables are most usually ally chosen at the Quarter Sessions of the Peace for that County, and are either to be sworn there, or else by warrant from the Sessions to be sworn elsewhere; and if it happen that they be chosen out of the Sessions, then ought they to be chosen by the greater number of the Justices of that Division where they dwell. Lamb. 190. 13. E. 11. Stat. Winch. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 16. fol. 46.

And in such manner as they are to be chosen, in the same manner, and by the like Authority are they to be removed, for eodem modo quo quid constituntur, dissolvuntur.

By the Stat. of the 34. H. 8. Two Justices of the Peace, the one being of the Quorum, may appoint the High Constables in Wales. 34 H. 8. Cap. 26.

Now for the Swearing and choosing of petty Constables, it properly belongs to the Court Leet, but in ancient time they were yearly appointed by the Sheriffs in their turn, and were there sworn and received their Oath, and so they may be. Hill. Bacons use of the Law, pag. 5, 6. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 16. fol. 47. & Chap. 124. fol. 366. H. 8. T.

And

And now by the Stat. 14. Car. 2. It is provided that if any Constable of a Parish dye, or remove, that any two Justices may make and swear a new one, to continue till the next Leet or Quarter Sessions, and then the Steward of, or in the Leet or Justices at the Sessions are to swear another, or to approve of him that is chosen; and if any such Officer shall continue in his place above a year, the Justices at their Quarter Sessions may discharge him, and put another in his place, till the Lord of the Leet shall keep his Court and place in another. 14. Car. 2.

Chap. 12.

Constables lawfully chosen, if they shall refuse to be sworn, the Justices of Peace may bind them over to the Assises, or Sessions of the Peace. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 16. fol. 47. vide Crawlyes Case. Cro. 1. Part fol. 409.

A Constable of an Hundred or Parish, may not make a Deputy to execute his Office, as some hold opinion; but a Deputy may do under him many parts of his Office in his Name, so still as the Constable must answer for it. Dalt. 3. Part. Rep. fol. 77, 78.

If any Action be brought against a Justice of Peace, Maior, or Bailiff of a Corporation, Headburrrough, Port-Reeve, Constable, Tythingman, Collector of Subsidies or Fifteens, Churchwardens, Sworn-men, Overseers of the Poor, or their Assistants, for any thing done by reason of their several Offices, they may plead the general issue, and give the special matter in Evidence. 7. Jac. Cap. 5. 21. Jac. Cap. 22. Wingate Abr. St. Title Evidence.

And all Actions, brought against such Officers, must be laid in the County where the fact was done, and in case where the verdict passes for the Defendant or the Plaintiff is Non-suit, or discontinues his suit, these Officers shall be allowed double costs, to be recovered as other Defendants recover their costs. 7. Jac. C. 5. 21. Jac. C. 12. Wingate Abr. Stat. Tit. Evidence.

The form of the Constables Oath is as followeth:

You shall swear well and faithfully to serve our Sovereign Lord the King, and the Lord of the Manour in the Office of

of a Constable; you shall see the Kings Peace to be well and duly kept and preserved to the utmost of your power; you shall Arrest all such persons as in your presence shall ride or go armed offensively, or shall commit or make any Riot, Affray, or other breach of the Kings Peace: You shall do your best endeavour that the Statute of Winchester for the Watch in your Town be duly kept, and that Hue and Cry, and the Statutes for punishment of sturdy Beggars, Rogues, Vagabonds, Night-walkers, and other idle and wandering persons within your Liberties be duly put in execution: You shall do your best endeavour upon complaint to you made to apprehend all Fellons, Barrators, Rioters, and persons making Affrays; and if any such persons shall make resistance with force, you shall levy Hue and Cry, and shall pursue them till they be taken; you shall have a watchful eye to such persons as shall maintain or keep any common house or place, where any unlawful Games or Plays are or shall be used, as also to such persons as shall frequent or use such places, or shall exercise or use any unlawful Games or Plays there, or elsewhere contrary to the Statute: At your Assizes, Sessions, or Leet, you shall present all and every the offences committed or done contrary, trary to the Statutes made and provided for the restraining of inordinate haunting and tippling in Taverns, Inns, and Alehouses, and for repressing of drunkenness and prophane swearing. You shall true presentment make of all Bloodshedding, Affrays, Outcries, Rescues, and other offences committed or done against the Publick Peace, within your Limits: You shall well and truly execute all Precepts and Warrants to you directed from the Justices of Peace, and others in Authority in this County: And you shall well and duly, according to your knowledge, power, and ability, do and execute all other things belonging to the Office of a Constable, so long as you shall continue in the said Office.

So help you God.

Or the Oath may be given to the Constable in short thus;

You shall swear, that you shall well and truly execute the Office of a Constable (or Tythingman for the Parish (or Tything) of C. for this next year (or half a year, as the case is) and until another be sworn in your Room, or you shall be legally discharged thereof.

So help you God.

CHAP. II.

The Constables Office about Affrays.

IF any man shall make an Affray or Assault upon another in the presence of the Constable, or if any man in his presence shall threaten to kill, beat or hurt another, or shall be in a fury ready to break the Peace, in every of these cases the Constable may commit the offenders to the Stocks, or to some other safe custody for the present (as the quality of the person requireth) until such time as he can carry them before some Justice of the Peace, or to the Goal, until they shall find Sureties for the Peace, which Surety the Constable himself may also take by an Obligation to be sealed and delivered to the Kings use: and so was the opinion of Malmasby, Owen and Beaumont, in the Argument of Skarrett's Case, Tr. 35. El. Co. Bar. Rot. 1458. but my Lord Anderson said that the Constable ought to carry the parties that he should see breaking the Peace, before a Justice to find Sureties for the Peace, and at this day day this is the most usual & safest way;

vide 3. H. 4. 9 & 10. Bacon's use of the

In case where the Constable had taken such an Obligation to the use of the King, he was to send it into the Exchequer or Chancery, from whence process should be awarded to levy the debt, if the Peace were broken. Dalton's 7. P. Ch. 1. fol. 5. Bacon's Use of the Law 5.

The Constable in the Kings Name ought to command Affrayers, or such as are about to make an affray, to avoid or surcease, and to depart on pain of Imprisonment; and if the Constable being present at an Affray, doth not his best endeavour to part them, it being presented by the Enquest at the Sessions of the Peace, such Constable may be fined for it. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. & fol. 33.

If any person be dangerously hurt in an Affray, the Constable (or any other person) may arrest the offender, and carry him to a Justice of Peace, who is either to Bayl him till the next Gaol Delivery, or to commit him to the the Gaol until it be known whether the party hurt will live or dye thereof.

If the Affrayers will not depart, but shall draw weapons, or give any blow, the Constable may command assistance of others for the pacifying of the Affray, and may justifie the beating or wounding of them, if they make resistance; and if either the Constable, or any in his Assistance be slain, it is murder in the Affrayers, Lamb. 135. 1. H. 7. 7. 3. H. 7. 10. Co. 4. Lib. Rep. fol. 4. & Co. 9. Lib. Rep. fol. 66.

The Constable (if the Affray be great or dangerous) may in the Kings Name make Proclamation that the Affrayers shall keep the Kings peace, and depart, &c. And if the Affray be in an house, and the doors shut, the Constable may break into the house to see the peace kept, though none of the parties have taken any hurt; and if the Affrayers fly into another mans house, the Constable upon fresh pursuit may break into such house, and apprehend the Affrayers.

And where the Affrayers fly into another County, the Constable seeing this, may freshly pursue, or cause them to be pursued, and to be taken there: but then in such case the Constable can meddle no further, (but as every private man may do) to carry them before some Justice of Peace of the County where they are taken: to cause them to find Sureties for the Peace. *Crompt. 146. h. Note that after the Affray be over, the Constable without a Warrant cannot Arrest the Affrayers, except some person be in peril of death by some hurt there received; but before the affray begun, and during the time thereof, he may Arrest them without Warrant. 38. H. 8. Bro. fean. Imp. 6.

 it is against his Oath if he do not see in hot words, this is no Affray, neither may the Constable for words only lay threaten to kill, beat, or hurt one another, and then may the Constable arrest such Persons, and carry them be-execution of this Office as abovesaid, every person or persons for every such offence, shall forfeit the sum of Five pounds, to be recovered in any Court of Record; and be also committed to the common Gaol of the County where the offence was committed, there to remain without Bayl or Mainprize, until he, she, or they, do enter into Recognizance to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, with Two sufficient Sureties in Ten pounds penalty, not to do or commit the like offence again.

The Constables Office about Weights and Measures.

EVERY City, Borough, and Market Town within England, ought to have common Weights and Measures sealed, at which the Inhabitants themselves may freely weigh; and all Foreigners must pay for every Draught under 40 pound a Farthing, for a Draught between Forty and an Hundred, dred, must pay an half Penny, and for a Draught betwixt an Hundred and a Thousand they must pay a Penny, where-with the Weights are to be maintained, and the Officers which attend that Service are to be rewarded at the discretion of the said Inhabitants. 8. H. 6. Ch. 5. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Weights and Measures.

Every City which wants such Weights and Measures forfeits Ten pounds to the King, every Borough Five pounds, and every Market Town Forty shillings, and the chief Officers of such places, whether they be Constables, Bayliffs, or others are, upon Request to them made, to mark and sign such Weights and Measures to any of the Kings Subjects, taking for the marking of every Bushel one Penny; and none ought to sell with any other Weights or Measures, but such as are so marked. 8. Mayors and chief Officers are, &c.] ~~great~~ least once every year to view all Measures and Weights within their Jurisdiction, and break or burn them which which they find defective, and also may inflict punishment upon the Offenders; for the first offence Six shillings Eight pence, for the second Thirteen shillings and Four pence, and for the third offence Twenty shillings; and besides, may adjudge them to the Pillory. *Wingate's Stat. The Constables Office about Watches.

THe Constables, &c. of every Town, are to cause Night Watch to be kept from Ascension till Michaelmas, in their Towns, which Watch must continue from Sun set to Sun rise and may be by two or four men, according to the greatness of the Town. 13. E. 1. Ch. 4. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 60. fol. 140. Poul. Watch, 1.

These Watchmen are to apprehend all Strangers that pass by them in the Night, and must examine them; and if they find cause of suspicion in them, then they may keep them till the Morning; and if the parties refuse to obey the Arrest, then the Watchmen may levy Hue and Cry for the taking of the said Night-walkers; or the Watchmen may justify the beating of them upon their resistance, and set them in the Stocks till the morning, and then if no suspicion be found in the parties, they may let them go quit: but if they find suspicion in them, then the Watchmen may may deliver them to the Constable, who is to convey them to a Justice of Peace to be examined, and to be bound over, or committed until they be acquitted according to due form of Law. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 60. fol. 140. & Ch. 109. fol. 292. 5. E. 3. 14. 5. H. 7. 5. a. Lamb. Office Const.

These Watchmen are also to apprehend Rogues and Vagabonds, Night-walkers, Evesdroppers, Scouts, and such like, and such as go armed, &c.

And note, that these particulars following have been held for Law concerning Watches.

First, That the Watch must be by men of able body, and sufficiently armed, and that no man is compellable to watch, except he be an Inhabitant within the same Town.

Secondly, That such as are Inhabitants within the Town, are not compellable to watch at the will of the Constable, but only when their turn cometh, according to the use and custom of the place, which most commonly is by turn, or house.

Thirdly, If a man who is compellable to watch, shall contemptuously refuse to watch, upon the command of the Constable; it hath been held, by some, that the Constable in such case, ex Officio, may set the party in the Stocks for his contempe; but the safest way is for the Constable to present such person for his default at the Assizes or Sessions of the Peace, or else to complain of him to a Justice of Peace, who may bind the Offender to the good behaviour, and so over to the next Quarter Sessions, &c. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 60. fol. 141.

The Constables Office about Executing Warrants.

A Justice of Peace may direct his Warrant to the Sheriff, Bayliff, Constable, or other Officer, or to any other Indifferent person by Name, though he be no Officer. 14. H. 8. 16. Bro. Peace. 6. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fol. 332.

A Warrant directed by the Justice of Peace to the Constable, or other Sworn Officer, and to a Stranger who is no Officer, and the Warrant is made to them joyntly and severally, and is delivered to the Stranger who executeth it, this is good enough: and if a Warrant from a Justice of Peace be directed to two men joyntly to Arrest another, yet any one of them may do it alone. Crompt. 147. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fol. 332.

If a Justice of Peace direct his Warrant to the Sheriff, he may by word command his Undersheriff, Bayliff, or other known and sworn Officer, to serve it without any Precept to them in writing, and they upon such Commandment of the Sheriff may lawfully do it. Lamb. 91. Bro. ex. Imprif. 43. & Trespass. 339. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fol. 332.

But if the Sheriff in such case do command a Stranger, who is neither his Servant nor Sworn Officer, then he must do it by Precept in writing, or otherwise an Action of false Imprisonment lies for the Arrest. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 332.

Where a Warrant is directed by a Justice of Peace to the Sheriffs Bayliff, or his Servant, or to the Constable, or other private person to Arrest one, such such person cannot command another to do it, neither by word nor writing, but must do it himself. Co. 9. Lib. Rep. fo. 69. 14. H. 7. 9. b. 20. H. 7. 13. 21. H. 7. 44. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fol. 332.

The Officer, to whom any Warrant shall be directed, ought with all speed and secrecy to seek and find out the party, and then to execute his said Warrant. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 332.

A sworn and known Officer (be he Sheriff, Undersheriff, Bayliff, or Constable) needs not to shew his Warrant to a man when he comes to serve it upon him, although he demand it; but he who is no sworn Officer ought to shew his Warrant upon demand, or otherwise the party may make resistance and not obey him; and a sworn Officer also upon the Arrest, though he will not shew his Warrant, yet he ought to acquaint the party with the contents thereof. M. 8. E. 4. fo. 14. a. Bro. fx. Impr. 23. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 332, 333. Co. 6. Lib. Rep. 54. & 9. Lib. fo. 68.

Note, That an Officer giveth sufficient notice what he is, when he saith to the party, I Arrest you in the Kings Name, &c. and in such case the party at his his peril ought to obey him, though he knoweth him not to be an Officer; and if he have no lawful Warrant, the party grieved may have his Action of false Imprisonment against him. Co. 9. Lib. Rep. fo. 69. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 333.

If a Constable or other Officer Arrest a man for the Peace, or the like, before that he have a Warrant, and then afterwards doth procure a Warrant (or a Warrant cometh after to him) to Arrest the party for the same cause, yet the first Arrest was wrongful, and the Officer is subject to an Action of false Imprisonment. Dyer fo. 244. Lamb. 930 Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 333.

Where a Warrant is granted out against J. N. the son of T. P. and the Constable or other Officer takes J. N. the son of L. B. although he in truth be the same person that offended, and against whom the complaint was made, yet this Arrest is tortuous, and the Officer liable to an Action of false Imprisonment. 10. E. 4. fo. 12. Bro. ff. Impr. 38. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 333.

But it is said by some, that where two or three are known by the Name of J. R. of K. Yeoman, and upon a Warrant or other process granted out against one of them, another of them is Arrested, in such case an Action of false Imprisonment will not lye against the Officer; tamen Quere hereof. 11. H. 4. fo. 90. 5. E. 4. fo. 51. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 117. fo. 333.

Where an Officer hath received a Warrant, he is bound to pursue the effects of his Warrant in every behalf; or otherwise his Warrant will not excuse him of that which he hath done. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 333.

The Constable, or other Officer, upon a Warrant from a Justice of Peace for Treason, Felony, the Peace, or good behaviour, or in any other case where the King is party, may by force of such Warrant break open a mans house to Arrest the Offender; but in such case he ought first to signifie the cause of his coming, and require them to open the Doors, before he break them open. Co. 5. Lib. Rep. fo. 9. 7. E. 3. 19. Crompt. 171. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 78. fo. 204. 205. & Chap. 117. fol. 333.

If a Constable or other Officer hath arrested a man by vertue of his Warrant, which he hath from a Justice of Peace,

Peace, and then taketh his promise that he will come to him such a day to go to the Justice with him, according to his Warrant (and so he letteth the party go) who comes not again at the day appointed, in this case the Officer cannot take him again upon the same Warrant, because he was suffered to go by the consent of the Officer; but if the party Arrested had escaped of his own wrong without the consent of the Officer, in such case upon fresh suit he may take him again, and again so often as he escapeth, although he were out of view, or that he do flie into another Town or County; and it is said that the Officer in such case, though the party be taken in another County after the Escape, yet he may bring the party before the Justice on whole Warrant he was first Arrested. Crompt. 234. a. 148. 172. et 173. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 333. et Ch. 118. fo. 340.

By the opinion of the Court of the 14. H. 8. it was held there that a Justice of Peace cannot make a Warrant to Arrest a Felon, unless he be Indicted of Felony (or that the Justice himself hath a suspicion of the Felon) But if the Constable, or other Officer, shall serve such a Warrant, he may justifie the same, though the Justice did erre in awarding thereof. 24. E. 3. 9. 14. H. 8. 16. Bro. Peac. 6. & fx. Impr. 8. & 9. Dar. 7. P. Ch. 117. fo. 331.

Note, That where a Justice of Peace doth make a Warrant for a matter wherein he hath Jurisdiction, though it be beyond his Authority, yet it is not disputable by the Constable, or other such Officer, but must be obeyed and executed by them; as if the Justice shall make a Warrant to Arrest one for the Peace, or good behaviour, &c. without any cause, the Officer shall not be punished for executing the Warrant: But if a Justice of Peace shall make his Warrant to do a thing out of his Jurisdiction, or in a Cause wherein the Justice is not Judge, then if the Officer shall execute such a Warrant he is punishable for it: for the Officer is not bound to obey him who is not Judge of the Cause, no more than he is bound to obey a meer Stranger; and so note that the Officer is bound at his peril to take notice of the Authority and

If any shall abuse the Justice of Peace his Warrant, by casting it into the dirt, treading it under feet, burning it, &c. for such contempt the party may be bound to his good behaviour, and may also be indicted and fined for the same, for it is the Kings Process. Crompt. 149. *Dalt. 7. Where Hue and Cry either by the Common Law, or by force of any Statute is levied upon any person, the Arrest of such person is lawful, although the cause of the Hue and Cry be Feigned; and if the Cause be Feigned, he that Levies the same shall also be Arrested, and shall be Fined and Imprisoned; but common Fame and voyce is not sufficient to Arrest a man in case of Felony, unless a Felony be done indeed. 29. E. 3. 9. 38. E. 3. 6. Co. 3. *Part. To all Church-wardens, Overseers, &c.

Gentlemen,

THese following Offices, aswel as that of the Constable, have been touched also by Mr. Lambert, and Mr. Sheppard: but since the one writ there have been many hundred new Statute-Laws; and the other, writing in the late times of Rebellion, hath moulded his work suitable to the Manners then in fashion, and many of the Rules laid down by Mr. Sheppard in these several Offices, which thwart the Laws of the Kingdom, and Priviledges of the Church, are now out of doors: I have therefore (for the ease and satisfaction of those who desire to be put in the right Way and sure Road in the executing of these several Offices) collected and published this small Treatise, briefly laying down the Authority and Duty of Church-wardens, Overseers, &c. in their several Offices, The Desire of praise could not carry me aloft, who want wings for it; but the main thing, here aimed at, is the good of the fruit of my labour in it, that is, your kind acceptance, Dear Friends;

 which if I may obtain, it is all that is

CHAP. I.

The Antiquity of the Churchwardens Office, and how they are to be chosen.

1. IT is said by some Historians; that Dionysius in the year of our Lord 267. divided both in Rome and other places, Churches, Church-yards, and Parishes to Curates; and Diocesses to Bishops, and this was about 87 years after Britain had received the Christian Faith: For though Historians do not all agree when the Christian Faith was first

planted here, yet it is thought by most of them to be in the Raign of King Lucius, about the year of our Lord 180. but how long after it was before these Officers called Churchwardens were appointed, it cannot certainly be known; but Mr. Lambert and other Authors do agree, that they are very antient Officers, and by the antient common Law they were, and are still to take care, see to, and preserve the Goods of the Church, viz. the Church Books, Communion Cups, &c. and other decent Ornaments and furniture of the Church, which they do find there at their coming into their Office.

2. As to the choice of these Officers it is appointed by the Book of Canons printed in the first year of King James, An. Dom. 1664. That all Churchwardens, Questmen, Sidemen, or Assistants in every Parish shall be chosen by the joynt consent of the Minister and the Parishioners, if it may be: But if they cannot agree upon such a choyce, then the Minister shall choose one, and the Parishioners another; and without such a joynt or severall choyce, none shall take upon them them to be Churchwardens, neither shall they continue any longer then one year in that Office, except perhaps they be chosen again in like manner; and these Officers are to be yearly chosen in Easter-week. Can. 89. 90.

But note, where there is an antient custom in any Parish for the choice of Churchwardens contrary to this Canon, in such case the custom is to be observed before the Canon, as appears by several Cases hereafter mentioned.

4. If the Parishioners of a Parish have used time out of mind, &c. to elect one Churchwarden, and the Vicar another, and afterwards a Canon is made that the Vicar shall elect two, and he doth so accordingly, and the Parishioners elect one according to their custom, and the Ordinary disallows him, and establisheth the other two elected by the Vicar; in this Case a prohibition shall be granted. P. 5. fac. B. R. the Parishioners Case of Rowenden in Kent. Rolls Cases 2. Part. fo. 287.

5. A Prohibition was granted against a Churchwarden chosen by the Parson of St. Magnus nigh London-bridge, by force of a Canon, upon a surmise that the Parish had a custom to choose two Churchwardens, Tr. 7. Ca.

6. An Attorney cannot be made a Churchwarden: if he be put in and refuse, and so be sued in the Spiritual Court, he may have a Prohibition; P. 14. Car. 1. B. R. Wilsons Case, & Tr. 15. Car. 1. B. R. Barkers Case. Roll's Cases, 2. Part. fo. 272.

7. By the Stat. 15. Car. 2. All Vestry men, or those who are members of any Vestry within any Parish in the Cities of London and Westminster, Borough of Southwark, and Weekly Bills of Mortality, and in all other Cities, Boroughs and Towns Corporate, where where Select Vestries are used in the Kingdom of England, are within one month after their Election, before the respective Archbishop, Bishop; or Ordinary, Vicar General or Chancellour of the Diocess to make and subscribe as followeth :

I A. B. do declare that it is not lawful upon any pretence whatsoever, to take up Arms against his Majesty. And that I do abhor that traiterous Position of taking Arms by his Majesties Authority against his person, or against those that are Commissionated by him. And that I will conform to the Liturgy of the Church of England, as it is now established. And I do declare; that I hold there lies no obligation on me, or on any other person from the Oath commonly called The Solemne League and Covenant, to endeavour any change or alteration of Government either in Church or State; And that the same was in it self an unlawful Oath, and imposed upon the Subjects of this Realm, against the known Laws and Liberties of this Kingdom. 19. Car. 2. Ch. 5.

8. He that refuses this Subscription within the time aforesaid, is ipso facto deprived of such his place of Vestry-man, and a new one to be chosen; and if such new one refuse also, or if such person who shall have right of Election, shall not proceed to Election within one Month after such vacancy, then the respective Archbishop, Bishop or Ordinary of the Diocess may under his Hand and Seal elect and nominate a discreet person of the respective Parish, who after Subscription within the time aforesaid is to stand. 15. Car 2. Ch. 5. This Act is to continue till the end of the first Session of the next Parliament.

CHAP. II.

9. THese Officers are diligently to see that all the Parishioners duly resort to their Parish Church upon all Sundays and Holydays, and there continue the whole time of Divine Service, and none to walk or stand idle, or talking in the Church, Church-yard, or Church-Porch during that time; and all all such as shall be found slack or negligent in resorting to the Church (having no great or urgent cause of absence) they shall earnestly call upon them, and after due admonition, if they amend not, they must present their Names to the Ordinary of the place.

5, 6. E. 6. Ch. 1. Canon 19, 20, M. 11. c. 1.

10. If the Churchwardens find any person absent from the Church upon Sundays or Holydays, in the time of Divine Service, Preaching, or other holy Exercise, such person is to pay 12 d. to the use of the Poor; and this extends as well to all Women Covert, as to other persons: or the Churchwardens, if they please, may present such person in the Ecclesiastical Court. But note that none are to be punished twice for one offence, so that they must not pay their twelve pence, and be presented too. 1. Et. Ch. 1. Hobbar's Rep. fol. 97.

11. And if they find any Tipling in an Inn or Alehouse, &c. then, besides the twelve pence for being absent from the Church as aforesaid, they forfeit three shillings four pence more for Tipling, and the Master of the House.

House ten shillings for suffering them to Tipple; which forfeitures are to go to the use of the Poor. 4. 7th of Ch. 5.

12. The Churchwardens or Questmen are to suffer no Plays, Feasts, Banquets, Suppers, Church Ales, Drinkings, Temporal Courts or Leets, Lay Juries, Musters, or any other profane usage to be kept in the Church, Chappell, or Churchyard; neither the Bells to be rung superstitiously upon Holy days, or Eves abrogated by the Book of Common Prayer, nor at any other times, without good cause, to be allowed by their Minister of the place and by themselves. Canon 88.

13. Neither the Minister, Churchwardens, nor any other Officers of the Church, shall suffer any man to preach within their Churches or Chappels, but such as by shewing their Licence to preach shall appear unto them to be sufficiently Authorized thereunto: And the Churchwardens or Questmen are also to see that in every meeting of the Congregation the Peace be well kept, and that all persons excommunicated, and so denounced, be kept out of the Church. Canon 50. 85.

CHAP. II.

*Some few Cases concerning Actions for

14. NOte, that the Law doth make of these Officers a kind of a Corporation, viz. Persons enabled by that name to take moveable Goods or Chattels, and to sue and to be sued at Law concerning such Goods for the use and profit of their parish, for the property of the Goods of the Church is in them, and they are by that Name enabled to take them for the use and profit of the Parish: and therefore a man may well in his life time, or by his last Will, give or grant Mony, or other moveable Goods to the Churchwardens, or Parishioners of such a Parish, for the Reparations of the Church, or for buying of Books, Communion Cups, Linnea Cloths, or other decent Ornaments or Furniture for the Church, 12. H. 7. fo. 27. Finn's Law.

15. But they cannot take an Estate of Lands

Lands to them by Name of Churchwardens only, for if a Feoffment be made to the use of the Churchwardens of D. this is a void use, for they have no capacity to take such Purchase.

16. Neither can they prescribe to have Lands to them and their Successors; for they are no Corporation to have Lands, but for Goods for the Church only. P. 37. El. C. B. Longley & Meredines Case. Rolls Cases, 1. Part. fol. 393.

17. If a Man buy a Bell, and hang it up in the Steeple; or make a Pew and set it up in the Church, though he make neither words nor writing hereof, yet by this the Bell and Pew are so dedicated to the Church, that the party that did owe them, can never have them again; for if they should come to remove them, the Churchwardens might sue them for it. 8. H. 7. 12. 10. H. 4. fol. 9. Kitchen. pag. 277.

18. They can have no action at Common Law to recover any Goods of which they never had the possession: But if the Churchwardens be once possessed possessed of any Goods, or Ornaments belonging to the Church, and afterwards, the same things are taken from them, then they have the same remedy for the things, as other men have for the Goods taken from them: And therefore if such Goods be stolen, they may have an Appeal of Robbery, and if they be otherwise taken away or abused; as if a Bell be broken, or the like, the Churchwardens may have an Action against him that doth it: and in this Action they recover Damages to the use of the Parish, and not to their own use. Tr. 8. E. 4. fo. 6. b. 37. H. 6. 32. Finch. Lib. 2. Chap. 17. pag. 178, 179. Abr. Daff. fol. 76. Kitchen, pag. 277. b. & 278. a.

19. And it seems also, that the party that doth steal or take away any Goods belonging to the Church may be punished for it as for a sacrilegious offence: And observe, that if the Churchwardens from whom the Goods were taken be out of their Office, their Successors, as it seems, may sue for, or recover the same, or damages for them to the use of the Parish. vide M. 31. & 32. El. B. R. Hadman

Kingwoods Case. Cro. Rep. 3. Part. 07

20. But note, That the Churchwardens have no such property in the Goods of their Church, as thereby to have power to give, sell, release, hurt or impair them, without the assent of the Sidemen or Vestry. Vide 38. El. Merbold and Winnet Case. Rolls Cases. 1. Part. fo. 393. and see Hil. 7. Jac. B. R. in Starke and Bartons Case. Cro. Rep. 2. Part. & vide 13. H. 7. 9.

21. If the Churchwardens shall give or impair the Goods in their custody, the Parishioners may choose new ones, who may have an Account against their Predecessours. 8. E. 4. fo. 6. b. Finch. Lib. 2. Ch. 17. pag. 179.

22. If the Organs be taken out of the Church, the Churchwardens may have an Action of Trespass for the same, for the Organs belong to the Parishioners, and not to the Parson; and therefore the Parson cannot sue such party in the Ecclesiastical Court that took them. Tr. 12. Jac. B. R. per Curiam. Rolls Cases 1. Part. fo. 393.

23. But if the Walls, Windows, or Doors of the Church be broken down, or the Trees in the Churchyard be cut down, down, or the Grasse thereof be taken up, the Parson or Vicar, and not the Churchwardens shall have an Action for it, for they are a Corporation only as to moveable Goods, and see 8. H. 6. fo. 9. where the Parson brought an Action of Trespass for breaking and entering into his house and close, which was the Church and the Church-yard. 10. H. 4. fo. 9. 21.  25. If a Presentment be made by the Churchwardens in the Ecclesiastical Court, That 7. s. one of the Parishioners is a Railer and a Sower of Discord amongst his Neighbours, a Prohibition hibition lies in such case; for this belongs to the Lect, and not to the Spiritual Court, unless such Railing were in the Church, or such like place. M. 16. Jac. C. B. Rot 716. Smith & Parnell's Case. Hobbs's Rep. fol. 246. Rolle's Cases, 2. Part. fo. 286.

26. 27. If the Churchwardens of a Church sue in the Ecclesiastical Court for that he, and all those whose Estate he hath in such an House, &c. at the perambulation of the Parishioners of the Parish, did use to find a refreshing for them (to wit) Bread and Ale, and suffer them to rest there; here a Prohibition shall be granted; for that they claim it in nature of a Corrody; and if that should be suffered, a great inconvenience would ensue. *M. 13. ## CHAP. III.

The Churchwardens Office about disposing of Seats in their Church.

29. THese Officers are to look to the repair of the Seats in the Church, but the disposing of the Seats in the body of the Church, belongs of common Right to the Ordinary of the Diocess, so that he may place and displace whom he pleaseth, except in some cases. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 288.

30. For if a Man and his Ancestors, and all those whose Estate he hath in a certain Messuage, have used time out of mind, &c. to repair an Isle of the Church, and so sit there and none else, the Ordinary in such case cannot displace him; for if he do, a Prohibition lies, because he hath it by a Prescription for a reasonable consideration. M. 10. Jac. C. B. Pimme's case, per Curiam, Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 288.

31. If a man prescribe that he and his Ancestors, and all those whose Estates they had in a certain Messuage, did use to sit in a certain Seat in the body body of the Church, time without mind, &c. in consideration that he and they, &c. have used time out of mind, to repair the said Seat, if the Ordinary remove him from such Seat, a Prohibition may be brought; for the Ordinary hath no power to dispose of it, for it is a good Prescription, and by intendment there hath been a good consideration for the commencement of such Prescription. Tr. 12. Jac. C. B. Crosses case, M. 13. Jac. C. B. Laugh & Huffy's case, & M. 13. Jac. C. B. Boothby & Dayes case, Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fol. 288.

32. But if a man prescribe to have a Seat in the body of the Church generally, without consideration to repair the same, then the Ordinary in such case may displace him, M. 11. Jac. B. R. per Curiam & M. 13. Jac. C. B. inter Boothby & Bayly, Hobart's Rep. fo. 69. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 288.

33. The Ordinary hath nothing to do with the Seats in the Chappels belonging to the houses of Noblemen; Tr. 12. Jac. C. B. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 288.

34. But if a Layman by the dissolution on of Monasteries hath a Monastery in which there is a Church, parcel of it, and he suffers the Parishioners for a long time to come to it, and do Divine Service, and to use it as their Parish Church, this (unless for all the whole time the party hath used to place men in their Seats himself) shall give Jurisdiction to the Ordinary to order the Seats; for that now in fact is the Parish Church, although that before it were not subject to the Ordinary. Tr. 12. fac. C. B. Buzard's Case, Rolls 2. Part. fo. 288, 289.

35. If there be a custom in a Parish, that twelve of the Parishioners may choose Churchwardens, which Churchwardens have power by the custom to repair the Seats and make new ones in the body of the Church, and to appoint what persons shall sit in them; and the Churchwardens so elected do erect a new Seat in the Body of the Church, and appoint a certain man to sit there, and afterwards the Ordinary decrees that another shall have the Seat; here a Prohibition lies: For the custom hath fixed the power of disposing the Seats in the Churchwardens, P. 16.

Jac. B. R. Brabin and Tredennick's case for a Seat in Breock Church in the County of Cornwal: but the reason of granting the Prohibition in this case, was partly because that the Sentence of the Ordinary was that Tredennick should have the Seat to him and his Heirs, and that none should disturb him in pain of Excommunication, which is unreasonable, and by such Sentence he and his Heirs should have it, though they were no Inhabitants within the same Parish. Rolls Cases. 2. Part. fo. 289.

CHAP. V.

36. THese Officers are to see that the Church and Churchyard be well repaired and kept clean: and they are to provide Books of Common Prayer, Books of Homilies, a Parchment Book for registering Christnings, Weddings and Burials in, Fonts, Pulpits, Tables, Chests for Alms, Communion Cups, Ornaments and other Furniture.

niture, and a Chest with three Locks and Keys for putting the same in : and they are also to provide Bread and Wine for the Sacrament according to the number of the Communicants. And for these purposes they may rate the Parish for mony to do it, for which see 37. H. 6. 30. 11. H. 4. 12. 11. H. 7. 27. 12. H. 7. 10. *F. N. 37. Upon making of Rates for Reparations, &c. they are to be done by the Churchwardens with the Assent of the greater part of the Parishioners, and upon a general warning given before they assemble for that purpose ; and note, that the Ecclesiastical Court hath cognizance of the Reparation of the body of the Church. See Jeoffry's case. Co. 5. Lib. Rep. fo. 67. & Rolls Cases. 2. Part. fo. 289. M. 31, 32. El. B. R.

38. If a man stay and inhabit in one Parish, and have Lands in another Parish which he occupies there, he may be charged for such Lands for the Reparation of the Church of the Parish where the Lands lye : because he may come there when he pleases, and he is to be charged in respect of the Lands.

Co. 5. Rep. 4. 67. M. 31, & 32. El. B. R. Jeoffry's case, & Tr. 11. fac. C. B. Andrews case, per Curiam. Rolls Cases, 2, Part. fo. 289.

39. But if an Inhabitant of a Parish Lease out his Lands which he hath in another Parish, reserving Rent, then he shall not be charged in the Parish where the Land lies in respect of the Rent, because there is a Parishioner and Inhabitant which may be charged. Co. 5. Rep. 4. 67. b. M. 5. fac. C. B. Rolls Cases 2. Part fo. 289. and see P. 41. El. B. R. Paget and Crumpton's case. Cro. Rep. 1. Part. fo.

40. Neither can a man who Inhabits in one Parish, and occupies Lands in another Parish, be charged in that Parish where the Lands lie for the Ornaments of that Church according to his Land; for the Inhabitants only ought to be rated for them, and so it was adjudged by the Court. M. 20. fac. B. R. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 291. Winches Rep. fo. per Yelverton.

41. Neither can a Man be charged in the Parish where he doth inhabit for the Lands which he occupieth in another Parish, towards the Reparation of the Church in the Parish where he liveth; because then he might be twice charged, for he may be charged in the Parish where the Land lies, as is shewed before, Sett. 38. P. 16. fac. B. R. Sir William Butler Vers. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 289. Co. 5. Rep. fo. 67.

42. If a petty Chapman take a Stall in the waste of a Mannor for Rent, within the Market for two or three hours every Market day to sell his commodities, the Market being held there one day every week, but he inhabits in another Parish, here he cannot be rated to the Reparation of the Church for such Stall or Standing. M. 20. fac. B. R. between Holms and the Churchwardens of Kettering in Northamptonshire, resolved, and a Prohibition granted accordingly. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 289.

43. If a Citizen of London build an house in the Parish of A. and inhabit there in the time of Sickness in London, and hath not any Land in the Parish, and afterwards he is assessed 20 s. for the Reparation of the Church, where others that have an 100 Acres of Land in the same Parish pay but 6 d. yet notwithstanding withstanding no Prohibition lies in this case in the Court Christian, because they have the Jurisdiction of the thing; and therefore he must be ordered according to their Law. M. 5. fac. C. B. Sir Robert Ley's case. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 289.

44. If there be a Chappel of Ease within a Parish, and one part of the Parish have used time out of mind, &c. to repair the Chappel themselves without the rest of the Parishioners, and there to hear Service, and Marry, and all other things, but only that they bury at the Mother Church, here notwithstanding they shall not be discharged of the Reparation of the Mother Church, but must contribute to it; for the Chappel was ordained only for their ease. M. 13. fac. C. B. between the Churchwardens of Ashton and the Inhabitants of Castle Bromage. Rolls 2. Part. fo. 289. & Hob. Rep. 4. 66.

45. If all the Parishioners in the Parish are not rated but some are, and some are not; and those who are rated are sued in the Ecclesiastical Court, yet they cannot have a Prohibition but must plead this matter in the Spirittual Court. M. 11. Jac. B.R. per Curiam. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 291.

46. If the greater part of the Parishioners of a Parish where there are four Bells, agree that there shall be made a fifth Bell, and it is made accordingly, and they make a Rate for payment for it; this shall bind the remainder of the Parishioners, although they did not agree to it; for otherwise any obstinate persons might hinder any thing intended, and what is fit for the Ornament of the Church. M. 2. Car. 1. B.R. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 291.

47. Note, That a man ought to be rated according to his personal Estate, and not according to his Lands for the Ornaments of the Church. M. 20. Jac. B.R. Rolls Cases, 2. Part. fo. 291.

48. These things hereafter mentioned are accounted Church Reparations, viz. the Walls of the Church and Church Steeple, the Churchyard Walls of Stone or Brick, the Windows of Stone or Brick, and the Bars of Iron and Glass, the Roof of Timber, with Laths, Nails, Prigs, Dogs, and Bolts of Iron, the covering of Lead, Tile, Slates, or Shingles, the Floor with Stone or paving paving Tile, the Doors of Timber with Locks, Keys, Ridges, Hooks and Nails, the furniture of the Steeple with Stairs, Floors, Bells, Wheels and Ropes, the Pulpit and the Pews or Seats, not made by private men, and all these are to be performed by Land Rate, &c. though the occupier lives in another Parish, as afore shewed.

49. But these hereafter mentioned are not properly Church Reparations, viz. the Communion Table, with the Coverings thereof; the Communion Cups, the Bread and Wine for the Communicants, the Bible and other Books appointed to be in Churches, the washing of the Communion cloths, the Candles for the Lecture days, the Surplice the Pulpit Cloth and Cushion, the Clerk and Sextons wages, and expences of the Churchwardens and Sidemen at the Visitation; and therefore all these are to be performed Ratably by the Inhabitants of the Parish, and not by out-dwellers.

CHAP. VII.

The Churchwardens Office about Passing Accounts, together with the Heads of most of the things which they are to present at the Visitation Court.

63. ALl Churchwardens at the end of their year, or within a month after at the most, are before the Minister and Parishioners to give up a just Account of such Monies as they have received, & also what particularly they have bestowed in Reparations or

or otherwise for the use of the Church: And last of all, going out of their Office, they must truly deliver up to the Parishioners whatsoever Monies or other things of Right belonging unto the Church or Parish which remains in their hands, that it may be delivered over by them to the next Churchwardens by Bill Indented. Vide Canon 89.

64. And if they refuse to do this, they may be presented at the next Visitation Court for it, or the succeeding Churchwardens may have an Action of Account against them by the Common Law, and compel them to give an Account, and answer for their doings during the time of their Office; And if they have done the Parish any wrong, to make amends and satisfaction for the same to the use of the Parish for the harm it hath received by their default: And in this Account the old Officers shall have allowances for all the needful Sums of Money laid out or spent by them, either upon the Reparations of the body of the Church, Tower, or Bells, &c. or for Relief of the Prisoners in the Gaol, or otherwise where the Law doth injoyn them them to pay or disburse any mony. Kido

8. E. 4. fo. 6. b.

65. Now as touching the Churchwardens presentments. Note, That no Churchwardens, Questmen or Sidemen of any Parish shall be inforted to exhibit their presentments to any having Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction, above once in every year, where it hath been no oftner used, nor above twice in any Diocess whatsoever, except it be at the Bishops Visitation, for the which Presentments of every Parish, Church, or Chappel, the Register of any Court where they are to be exhibited, shall not receive in one year above four pence, under pain for every offence therein, of suspension from the execution of his Office for the space of one month toties quoties, but the Churchwardens may voluntarily upon their own Account present oftner if they please. Canon 116.

66. But no Churchwardens, Questmen or Sidemen, shall be called or cited, but only at the said time or times before limited, to appear before any Ecclesiastical Judge whatsoever, for refusing at other times to present any faults faults committed in their Parishes, and punishable by Ecclesiastical Laws; neither shall they, nor any of them, after their Presentments exhibited, at any of those times be any further troubled for the same, except upon manifest and evident proof it may appear, that they did then willingly and wittingly omit to present some such publick crime or crimes as they knew to be committed, or could not be ignorant that there was then a publick fame of them, or unless there be very just cause to call them for the Explanation of their former Presentments; In which case of wilful omission, their Ordinaries shall proceed against them in such sort, as in causes of wilful perjury in a Court Ecclesiastical it is already by Law provided, Canon 117.

67. Note, That one of the two times for Presentments is always to be about a Week or a Fortnight after Easter, at which time also the old Churchwardens are to leave the Office, and new ones are to come in; but the new ones are not to be sworn till the old ones have given in their Presentment, and every Parson or Vicar, and in the law-

by absence of the Parson or Vicar; then their Curates and Substitutes are to joyn in every Presentment with the Churchwardens, Sidemen and Questmen; and if the Churchwardens, &c. refuse to present, then every such Parson and vicar, or in their absence, as aforesaid, their Curates may themselves present to their Ordinaries at all such times, and when else they think meet. Canon 113, 118.

68. The Heads of the Articles, most commonly exhibited to the Churchwardens to make their Presentments upon, are as followeth :

69. Whether their Church and Chancel, Bells and Ropes be good and well repaired, and the Ten Commandments, Lords Prayer, and Creed, drawn out in fair Letters, the Kings Arms set up, Assessments made for the Repair of the Church; and who refuses to pay? If they have a Font, Communion Table, Carpit, Tablecloth, Flaggons with Cups, and Cover for Bread and Wine, Reading Desk, Pulpit with a Cushion and Covering fit for it, a Common Prayer Book of the largest Volume; and the Bible of King James's Translation in folio, with a Book of Homilies, and Book of Canons, and

And if the Parsonage house and out-houses be in good repair; and the Churchyard well fenced to keep out Swine, &c?

70. Then, Whether their Parson, Vicar, or Curate, read the Common Prayer at Morning and Evening Service, wear his Surplice, bid Holydays, Preach every Sunday, or read a Homily, Catechise, observe the 5. November, 30. Jan. and 29. May, and keep Perambulations, preach sound Doctrine, and vent no Sedition against the King or Government, Celebrate the Lords Supper three times every year at least, whereof at Easter for once; Baptise Infants with Godfathers and Godmothers, visit the Sick, and pray with them, Bury the Dead according to the Book of Common Prayer, Marry none Clandestinely, Preach in his Gown, be a man of a sober and chaste life, a Peace-maker amongst his Neighbours, and one that takes care

care to reduce Sectaries, Popish Recusants, Separatists and Refractory persons to the Obedience and Doctrine of the Church, and reads the Book of Canons to the People at least once every year, and the 39. Articles twice every year, according to his Majesties Letters published 1662?

71. Then, Whether all their Parishioners of due Age, resort to the Church to Divine Service, behave themselves Reverently there, Kneel, Stand up, and make Answer according to the Rubrick of the Common Prayer Book? Whether any work, or sell wares on Sundays or Holydays, or Vintners, Victuallers, Innkeepers, or others, receive any into their houses to supple on those days? Whether any Marry within the prohibited Degrees, be Adulterers, Fornicators, Blasphemers, Swearers, Drunkards, or Sorcerers; and if all above sixteen years old receive the Lords Supper at least three times every year, Easter to be one? and whether any keep their Children unbaptized, Women after Delivery in due time come not to be Churched, or any bring not their Dead to be buried after the Service of the Church, keep Conventicles, have been married without Banes or Licence at unlawful hours? and whether their Almshouses, Hospital, School, or Spittle, tle, if they have any be well and godlily used, or any thing detained from it? What Legacies given to pious uses; and if the Parishioners be placed into Pews or Seats, without offence or contention.

72. And lastly, Whether their Parish Clerk and Sexton (if they have any) be duly chosen, can write and read, be of an honest life, and make the Responses to the Hymns and other Suffrages? and if the Schoolmaster, and Usher, Physician, Chyrurgeon, or Midwife, (if they have any of them) teach or practise without Licence? if the Churchwardens be duly chosen in the Week after Easter, by the Parson and Parishioners, according to the Canon or Custom? and if the old Churchwardens have bin diligent to keep the Church in good Repair, to preserve all the Furniture thereof, and walk out of the Church usually about the middest of Divine Service, to see who are abroad in the Alehouse, or elsewhere absent or evilly employed?

73. These are the heads of most of the Articles that are inquired of at the Visitation Courts; but it is probable there may be some small alteration, according to the use of the several Diocesses in several places.

 FOR
Overseers of the Poor.

---

CHAP. I.

Of the Antiquity of the Officers, their Qualifications, and how and when to be chosen.

1. THIS Office of Overseers of the Poor, is a Name and Office of great Excellency and Antiquity, and may beseem the best and not the meanest men in a Parish; for this is not the least Office, to be called Overseers of the Poor; for as God himself hath a special respect to the miseries of the Poor, so they be like God which provide for the necessities of the Poor.

2. Now

2. Now it is certain, that the Antiquity of this Office is above sixteen hundred years standing, as appears by holy Writ; for we find St. Stephen the Protomartyr, a man full of Faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a Profelyte of Antioch, chosen to this Office, as appears Acts 6.5. & see Acts 20. & 28. & 1 Cor. 16.2,3.

3. As for the qualifications of these Officers, they ought to be substantial persons, having competency of Wealth, Wisdom, a good Conscience, and of honest report; see Acts 6. & 3. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 93.

4. Now these Overseers of the Poor, here with us in England, are certain Officers appointed yearly to be joyned and assistant to the Churchwardens of the Parish, in the over-sight and ordering of the Poor of the Parish, and they are to be appointed by two or more Justices of the Peace of the County (whereof one to be of the Quorum) dwelling in or near the Parish or Division, &c. who are yearly under their Hands and Seals, at Easter, or within a month month after to appoint 4, 3, or 2 substantial Householders, (according to the greatness of the Parish to be joyned with the Churchwardens of the Parish) and all these together are to look to the Poor of the Parish; for the Churchwardens of the place have an equal power and charge with the Overseers, and may be punished for their neglect, if they refuse to meddle herein, 43. El. 2. 21. 7 ac. Ch. 28. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 93. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

5. The major part of these Officers, without the rest of them may do any thing belonging to their Office. But they are to have the allowance and consent either in particular or in general of Two Justices of the Peace (Quor. unus) to every thing they do about their Office. And these Officers, or such of them as shall not be let by just excuse, (to be allowed by two Justices) are to meet monthly in the Church on Sunday after Evening Prayer, and there they are to consider of some meet directions about their Office, and they are to use all possible diligence in their Office, in pain to forfeit for every such Default twenty shillings.

shillings. 43. El. Ch. 2. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

6. The Inhabitants of the Townships within the great Parishes of Lancashire, Cheshire, Derbyshire, Yorkshire, Northumberland, Bishoprick of Durham, Cumberland and Westmerland, are to take care for the Poor of their Townships and Villages only, and are yearly to choose Overseers for the Poor within their severall Townships and Villages : And these Officers shall have the same power in the place where they are chosen, for the relief of the Poor there, and forfeit the like penalties for their neglect, as such like Officers for intire Parishes shall do. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 12.

7. And if it happen that Overseers be not appointed according to the 43. El. then every Justice of Peace, or Head Officer of that Division or Corporation shall forfeit 5 l. to be levied by a Sessions Warrant, and imployed to the use of the Poor of the Parishes where such default is made, 43. El. Ch. 2. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

CHAP. II.

Of the several Sorts of Poor People, and what Poor the Overseers are to provide for and relieve, or set to work.

NOte, that there are three sorts or degrees of Poor, as first the Poor by impotency and defect, as the aged and decrepit that are past their labour; the Infant Fatherless and Motherless, and not able to work, the person naturally disabled either in Wit or Member, as an Idiot, Lunatick, Blind, Lamé, &c. not being able to work, and the person visited with grievous sickness or disease, though casually, yet thereby for the time being impotent. All these the Overseers are to provide for, that they have necessary Relief and Allowances proportionable and according to the continuance and measure of their maladies and needs, and of these it may be said, Si non pavisti, occidisti: Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 100.

Then Secondly, The Poor by casualty, as a person casually disabled or maimed in his body, as the Souldier or Labourer, &c. maimed in their lawful Callings, the Householder decayed by casualty of Fire, Water, Robbery, Suretiship, &c. & the poor man overcharged with Children: All these (and such like others) having ability and strength of body, but not sufficient means to maintain themselves, are to be set to work by the Overseers, and being not able to live by their work, they are in Charity to be relieved in some reasonable proportion, according to their several wants and necessities. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 100.

10. Then lastly, The thriftless Poor, as the riotous and prodigal person, that consumes all with play or drinking, &c. the dissolute person, as the Strumpet, Pilferer, &c. the Slothful person that refuseth to work, &c. and the Vagabond that will abide in no place or service; and for all these the House of Correction is the place where they are to be sent to, and being of able bodies there they are to be held to hard labour, and to maintain themselves by their labour and work, without charging the Town or Country for any allowance. 7. Jac. Ch. 4. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 101.

11. But

11. But it seemeth that if any of these last sort of Poor happen to prove impotent, and also in cases of manifest extremity, then they are to be relieved by the Town. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 101.

12. If the Parents be able to work, and may have work, they are to find their Children by their labour, and not the Parish; but if they be overcharged with Children, they may have help, by having some of their Children put out Apprentices by the Overseers. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 98.

13. The Father, Grandfather, Mother, Grandmother, and the Children and Grandchildren of every poor impotent person not able to work, being of sufficient ability, shall relieve such poor persons in such manner, as the Justices of Peace of that County (where such sufficient person dwelleth) at their General Quarter Sessions shall Assess; and if such person refuse to abide the order they forfeit 20s. for every month to the Poor of the Parish, which forfeiture is to be levied by the Churchwardens and Overseers, or one of them, by Warrant from any two Justices of the Peace (Quor. unus) within their Limits, by distress and sale of the Offenders Goods, and for want of distress, any two such Justices may commit the Offender to Prison, there to remain without Bail till the said Forfeiture be paid. 43. El. 2. Ch 2. Resol. Judges 16, 17. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 40. fo. 98.

14. But note, That if a man marry a Grandmother that hath no Estate, the Grandfather in Law is not chargeable: But if she hath an Estate caused without such marriage, or that comes after marriage by descent or otherwise to her, here he may be charged: But where they have raised themselves to an Estate by their own Industry there it is doubtful: But in no case shall he be charged longer than his wife lives; and it seems also Bastard Children are not within this Law, neither can the Justices do any thing herein against a man that lives out of their County. See Boulstred's Rep. 2. Part. fo. 245, 246, 247.

15. No Poor may beg but in their own Parish, and there by licence of the Overseers of the Poor; & they may not licence them to beg in the High ways there, and without the licence of the Overseers they may not beg at all. Res.

16. No Inhabitants may serve any Poor at their Door, but those of their own Parish, that have licence from the Overseers of the Poor to beg there, under pain of 10 s. for every time they do so, 1. 7ac. 7. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 47. fol. 129.

17. These Officers to make provision for a poor man that wants an House (but not for a common Herdsman or Shepherd) with consent of the Lord of the Mannor first had in writing under his Hand and Seal, either by themselves, or with a Sessions Order, may erect a Cottage upon any part of the Waste of a Mannor, and lodge Inmates therein, notwithstanding the Stat. 31. El. 7. But such Cottage may not be afterwards imployed otherwise then to lodge impotent persons there; for if it be, then it falls within the penalty of the 31. El. aforesaid, 43. El. Ch. 2. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

18. All such persons married or unmarried, having no means to maintain them, use no ordinary and dayly Trade of life to get their living by, and such persons also as can get no work, are to be set on work by the Overseers; and any one Justice of Peace may send to the House of Correction, or Common Gaol, such as shall not imploy themselves to work, being appointed thereto by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the Parish. 43. El. Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 40. fo. 93.

19. And to this purpose the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor may by, and with the consent of two or more Justices of the Peace (Quor. unum) &c. Set up, use, and occupy any Trade, Mystry, or Occupation, only for the setting on work, and better relief of the Poor, of the Parish, Town or place, where they are Overseers, &c. 3. Car. 1. Chap. 4. Dalt. 7. P. Chap. 40. fo. 94. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

20. If a Stranger come into the Parish into any Tenement, under the yearly value of 10*l.* The Overseers may require sufficient Security of him, for the discharge of the Parish, and if he refuse, they may complain to the Justices of Peace within 40 days after the party come there, and they may order him to do it, or otherwise remove him. 14. Car. 2. Chap. 12.

CHAP. III.

The Duty of the Overseers about putting forth and binding of Apprentices, with the form of the Indenture for such purpose.

21. IN the putting out of Children Apprentices, there ought to be regard had to the Master, the Child and the Parents, First to the Master, that he be of ability and honesty, otherwise by some device or hard intreaty they may provoke their Apprentices to depart or run away; and regard is also to be had to his Trade or Faculty, lest the Apprentice consume his time without learning any thing: Secondly, Regard is to be had to the Apprentices to put them out timely, and while they are young and tractable (so that they be above the Age of seven years) otherwise by reason of their idle and base Educations they will hardly keep their Service, or imploy themselves to work: Then lastly, Regard is to be had to the Parents to take away such from them as are brought up to live idly and loosly, or else such as are a burthen and charge to their Parents. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 94, 95.

22. Note, That the choyce of these Apprentices are to be out of the poorest sort of Children, whose Parents are the least able to relieve them, and they are to be above 7. and under 15. years of Age, when they are first bound. 7. 7ac. Ch. 3. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

23. And these Officers are to have the consent of two Justices of the Peace in the placing out of such Apprentices; and they may bind the Man-child till 24 years of age, and the Woman-child till 21. years of age, or till she be married, which shall first happen: And these Apprentices may be bound to Weavers, Mafons, Dyers, Fullers, or any other Trade, as well as to Husbandry or Houfewifery. See 43. EN Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 31, fo. 83. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

24. Now this placing of Apprentices may be to any man, whom the Officers and Justices think fit to receive them, within the same Parish, or elsewhere in other Parishes within the same Hundred either with, or without Mony; there-therefore it is fit in this case to consider, if the Child be young, and the party to whom they place it is not very able, then they may give mony, if they please, as the party and they shall agree. Resol. Judges, 1633. Quest. 1.

25. All men that have, or may have use for Servants, as Knights, Clergymen, Gentlemen, and Yeomen, as well as Tradesmen, are bound to take Apprentices; yea, though wealthy men Table themselves, or live so privately, that they have no use for a Servant, yet they may be compelled to take them, or else to pay a sum of mony for putting them Apprentices elsewhere; and if they refuse to pay the sum imposed upon them, Two Justices of the Peace may make their Warrant to levy the same by distress and sale of the Offenders Goods. Resol. Judges, 1633. Quest. 4. Poulton 2.4. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 95.

26. Or the Refusers to take Apprentices may be presented and indicted for the same, upon the Stat. 43. Eliz. Ch. 2. at the Assizes or Sessions of the Peace. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 95. Resol. Judges, 1633. Quest. 7.

27. An Apprentice put to a man in respect respect of his Farm when his Lease expireth, the Apprentice shall go still with the Farm, if the first Master be so pleased ; otherwise it is where an Apprentice is put to a man in regard of his ability, or for other respects. And where any differences are between the Officers and the man that is to receive an Apprentice, about mony, and what mony shall be given or otherwise, here the Justices thereabouts, or, in their defaults, the Sessions must end it. Resol.

Judges, 1633. Quest. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40.
fo. 95.

28. If the Parents of poor Children shall refuse to let their Children be put forth Apprentices (without good cause shewed) such Parents may be bound over, by the Justices, to answer their said Default; and if the Children shall refuse, the Justices may send them to the House of Correction, there to remain till they be content to be bound and serve. Dalt 7. P. Ch. 40. & 31. fo.
96. & 78.

29. Note, That this binding must be by Indenture, and may not well be done by a Verbal Agreement, and the Indenture must be either between the Ju-

Justices, Churchwardens and Overseers, or them, and the Apprentice on the one part, and him that takes the Apprentice of the other part, as appears by the form of the Indenture in the end of this Chapter; and he must be named by the name of Apprentice expressly, or else he is no Apprentice, though he be bound. Crompt. 184. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 31 f. 82.

30. And this binding is as effectual to all purposes, as if the Children were of full age, and did bind themselves by Indentures and Covenants; and all such as are bound by the Overseers, as above said, may safely be received and kept as Apprentices by their Masters.

1. Jac. Ch. 25. 21. Jac. Ch. 28. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 31. fo. 83. 3. Car. 1. Ch. 4. 5. El. Ch. 4. Crompt. 184 b.

31. Note, That money given, to put out poor Children Apprentices, is to be imployed in Corporate Towns by the Corporations, and in other places by the Parson or Vicar, together with the Constables, Churchwardens, and Overseers of the Poor, or the most part of them; who shall not forbear or refuse to imploy the same accordingly, in pain to forfeit five marks, each of them them so making default, to be divided betwixt the Poor of the Parish and the Prosecutor. 7. 7ac. Ch. 3. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

32. And the party, taking any mony with such Apprentice, shall give good Security by Obligation to repay it at the end of seven years next ensuing the date of the said Obligation, or within three months next after the end of the said seven years; and if such Apprentice shall die within the seven years, then within one year after his or her death; and if the Master, Mistress, or Dame, happen to die within the seven years, then within one year after their death: so as the mony may be employed in placing the Apprentice with some other of the same Trade, to serve out his time, at the discretion of the parties trusted as afore said. 7. 7ac. Ch. 3.

33. And the mony so given shall be employed within 3 months after the Receipt thereof; and if there shall not be apt persons found in the places where it is given to be Apprentices, it shall then be employed in the Parishes next adjoyning, by the Parties that are trusted with it in the place where it was so given, and there also Bond shall be taken, as afore is declared. 7. Fac. Chi 3.

34. Note, That if the Master shall put his Apprentice into Apparel, it is a Gift in Law, and he cannot afterwards take it away, though he should part with his Apprentice. Bro. Transgr. 93.

35. An Apprentice cannot be discharged from his Apprenticeship, but by 4 Justices of the Peace at the least, and in open Sessions, or else by the Agreement of the Master and Apprentice, and under his Masters hand in writing. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 31. fo. 79.

36. The Form of these Indentures, mentioned before, is as followeth, viz. This Indenture made the 29. day of September, in the 20. year of the Raighn of our most gracious Sovereign Lord Charles the Second, by the Grace of God of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. Annoq; Dom. 1668. Witnesseth that J. W. and G. B. Overseers for the Poor in the Town of Kirk-Leaventon, and J. R. Churchwarden of the same Town, by and with the consent of Sir. J. P. Knight and Baronet, and T. M. Esq;

two of his Majesties Iustices of Peace for the North-Riding of the County of York have by these Presents placed and bound J. T. (being a poor fatherless Child) as an Apprentice with E. H. of Kirk-Leaventon aforesaid, Widow, and as an Apprentice with her the said E. H. to dwell from the day of the Date of these Presents, until she the said J. T. shall come to the age of 21. years, or be married, which shall first happen, according to the Statute in that case made and provided; by and during all which time and term the said J. T. shall the said E. H. her Dame well and faithfully serve, in all such lawful business as the said E. H. shall put her the said J. T. unto, according to her power, wit, and ability, and honestly and obediently in all things shall behave her self towards her said Dame and Children, and all the rest of the Family of the said E. H. And the said E. H. for her part promiseth, covenanteth, and agreeth that she the said E. H. the aforesaid J. T. in the Art and Skill of Housewifery the best manner that she can, or may, shall teach and inform, or cause to be taught and informed, as much as therein to belongeth, and she the said E. H. knoweth, and also during all the said Term to find unto her said Apprentice, Meat, Drink, Linnen, Woollen, Hofs, Shopes, Washing, and all other things needful or moer for an Apprentice. In Witness whereof, &c. 37. Note, If it be a Boy that is to be bound Apprentice to Husbandry, or any other Trade, then he may be bound till 24. years of Age, as is shewed before in this Chapter.
much

CHAP. IV.

Several Cases about Settlements, and also touching Bastards, &c.

38. Nore, There have been formerly many Controversies, what time should be accounted a Legal Settlement; but now all Objections in that point are answered; for it is appointed by the 14. Car. 2. that 40. days shall be accounted a Legal Settlement; but then this Settlement ought neither to be obscure, interrupted, nor brought about by practice.

39. As touching Settling of Poor People; Note, That the Justices are to meddle with none but those who are impotent, and such as are like to be chargeable to the place where they are. Boulstr. Rep. 10 Part: 347.

40. And as to this, know that it is enacted by the 14. Car. 2. Ch. 12. That if any Stranger come into a Parish to settle there in any Tenement, under 10 l. a year, and he refuse to give such Security for the Discharge of the Parish as two Justices shall think fit; then any two Justices ( Quor: unus ) may upon complaint to them made by the Churchwardens or Overseers within 40 days after the Stranger come into the Parish, make their Warrant to send him to the place, where he was last legally settled as a Native, Householder, Sojourner, Apprentice, or Servant 40 days or more; so that by this, it seems to be the opinion of this Parliament, that no man that Rents 10 l. a year, or above, is to be accounted such a poor man as to be removed by order of the Justices: where any person finds himself agrieved by the two Justices order, he may Appeal to the next Quarter ter Sessions held for that County for his Relief. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 12.

41. But any person may go into any County, Parish, or place to work in time of Harvest; or at any time to work at other work; so as they carry with him or them a certificate from the Minister of the Parish, one of the Churchwardens, and one of the Overseers of the Poor, that they have a dwelling House wherein they Inhabit, and that they have left Wife and Children, or some of them there, and is declared an Inhabitant there; and in such case, if the person shall not return to the place aforesaid, when his work is done, or shall fall sick or impotent, while he is in the said work, yet this shall not be accounted a Settlement; but any two Justices may send the person or persons to the place or places of his or their Habitation; and if any person shall refuse to go, or shall not remain in the Parish where he ought to be settled, then the Justices may send such person to the House of Correction, there to be punished as a Vagabond, or to a publick Workhouse to be employed in work or labour. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 12.

This

This Statute, as to the point aforesaid, is to continue to the end of the first Sessions of the next Parliament.

42. Note, That no man but a Vagrant Begger, ought to be sent out of any Parish to the place of his birth or last habitation; for if any refuse to work in the Parish where he is settled, or to work for the wages assessed, then he is by the Justices to be sent to the House of Correction. Cov. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 730. 7. Jac. Ch. 4. Resol. Judges, 9. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 47. fo. 126.

43. If a Scholar in the University, or in a Grammar School begin to be suspect, he may be, or if he doth become impotent, and is like to be a charge to the Parish where he is, he must be sent to his Parents if he have any, otherwise to the place where he was last legally settled before he came to School. Resol. Judges, 1633. Sect. 31.

44. If one be born, and live 20. years in A. and then go to B. and there live in a House and pay his Rent and after he comes to C. and there works 20. Weeks as a Labourer in a Quarry of Stones, where he breaks his back, and becomes impotent, and there is taken vagrant and begging, in this case he must be sent to A. the place of his birth, and there must be provided for. Resol. Judges, 14. Car. 1.

45. If a man that hath a Wife and Children take an House in one Parish for a year, and during this time he is illegally forced out of his Possession; then he takes an House as an Inmate in another Parish, out of which he is put within two or three days, and then not having any place to be in, he gets into a Barn in the third place, and there his Wife is delivered of another Child; in this case they are all to be sent to the Parish out of which they were first illegally forced. Resol. Judg. 1663. Sect. 24.

46. One born in D. left that place for the space of 20. years, then lived in S. took an house and paid rent, and left that place also 6. or 7. years; and then came to L. in another County, and there was 20. weeks, did work, and there became impotent, and did wander and beg in the same place, and was taken as a Vagrant, and it was ordered he should be passed and settled at D. where he was born, by the Judges at

47. No Child under the Age of 7. years shall be adjudged a Rogue within the Stat. 39. El. Ch. 4. But it seems such Children vagrant and begging must be sent and placed with the Father or Husband of the Wife; and if he be dead, then with the Mother (where she was born, or last dwelt by the space of one year) and such Children, once thus settled or placed, must there remain, and not be sent from thence to their place of birth, though after their Parents die or run away, or that the said Children grow above the age of 7. years; yea, though the said Children after beg and prove vagrant in the Town, for there they must be set to labour by the Overseers of the Poor. Resol. Judge, 4. 9, 10. Poult. Vag. 2. & Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 47. fo. 125.

48. But Children above 7. years of age, going about vagrant or begging in the Country, shall be punished as Rogues, and sent to their place of birth. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 47. fo. 125. & Resol. Judges, 4. 39. El. Ch. 4.

49. The Wife, being a Vagrant Rogue,

Rogue, must be sent to her Husband, though he be but a Servant in another Town; and where the Husband and Wife have an House', (though as an Inmate) and either of them Rogue about, in this case they are to be sent to the place where the house is. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 47. fo. 125. Resol. Judges. 3. & 5.

50. The Rogue, whose place of birth or last dwelling cannot be known, having Wife and Children under 7. years of age, they must go with the Husband to the place where they were last wilfully suffered to pass through without punishment, where the Children must be relieved by the work of their Parents, though the Parents be committed to the House of Correction; and if the Rogue have Children above 7. years of age, that Rogue about with him, then they are to be sent to the House of Correction also with the Parents, and when they come out again, then to their several places of births. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 47. fo. 123. and Sheppard's Guide for 7. P. pag. 252. Resol. & c. b.

51. If I live in an House in A. there with my Children, but I work in B. where I am hired by the year, in this case case my Children shall be in A. but if I have an House in B. they shall be placed there. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 99.

52. A. being a Wanderer with three Children born in three Parishes comes to Dalt with them to her Sister, and there dieth shortly after, here the Children must be settled in the several Parishes where they were born, and not in the Parish where the Mother dyed. Boulstr. Rep. 2. Part. 351.

53. No man is to be put out of the Town where he dwelleth and is lawfully settled, nor to be sent to his place of birth, or last Habitation, but a Vagrant Rogue, nor to be found by the Town, except the party be impotent, but they ought to set themselves to labour, if they be able and can get work; And if they cannot get work, then the Overseers are to set them to work: And if in such case such persons wander abroad begging out of the Parish, then they may be sent as Vagabonds (from the place where they shall be taken wandring or begging) to the place of their birth. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fol. 99.

54. If a Maid Servant be gotten with Child at A. by her Fellow Servant (or, by another Man of the same Town) and after both their Services ended they marry, and then the young man is retained at B. and afterwards the Woman is delivered of her Child, in this Case she with her Child are to be sent to the Father at B. and there must be settled. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 99.
by

55. If any disturbance be made to any Settlement lawfully ordered by the Justices, either by the Constables refusing to receive and convey a Rogue where they ought to do it, or by the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor in refusing such an one as is duly sent to be settled there, in such case they forfeit 5 l. by the 39. El. Ch. 4.

56. If a woman unmarried be hired Weekly, Monthly, half Yearly, or Yearly, in one Parish, and there be gotten with Child, and then goeth into another Parish, and there is settled in Service, or otherwise for two or three months, and then she is discovered to be with Child, in this case she and her Child shall be settled in the Parish where she then is, and must not be sent to the Parish whence she came. Resol. Judges. 1633. Sect. 12.

57. If

57. If a Woman be delivered of a Bastard Child in one Parish, and then go into another Parish with her Child, in this case the Child after it is nursed, is to be sent to and settled in the place where it was born, and not to remain with the Mother. Resol. Judges, 1633. Sect. 21.

58. If A. have a Bastard Child by B. born in Dale, 10. years since, and the Reputed Father marries another Woman, and they breed the Child 10 years in the Parish of Salé, and the Mother of the Child is in Service all this while, and a Single Woman, the Reputed Father dies; In this case the Child is to be sent to the Mother first, to be maintained by her if she be able, and if not, it must be kept by the Parish of Salé, where it was settled with the Father 10. years. Boulstr. Rep. 2. Part. fo. 350.

59. If a Woman have a Bastard Child, and is like to be chargeable to the Parish, and she is sent to the House of Correction for it (as she may be by Law) in this case it hath been questioned whether the Child must go with her, or remain in the Town where it was born, (or settled with the Mother) and and there to be relieved by the work of the Mother, or by Relief from the Reputed Father, upon the 18 El. and it seems most reasonable to be so; and yet the common opinion and practice is otherwise, (to wit) to send the Child with the Mother to the House of Correction: And this may also seem reasonable where the Child sucketh on the Mother. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 11. fo. 39.

60. If a Woman with Child be sent to the House of Correction, and there be delivered, the Child must be sent back to the Parish where the Woman came from, there to be relieved. Also if a Woman be travelling, and have her Child with her, and is apprehended and sent to the Gaol, and there hanged for Felony, in this case the Child shall not be chargeable to the place where the Goal is, but to the place where it was born (if it can be known) otherwise to the place where the Mother was apprehended; and so was the opinion of Sir Nicholas Hide. 3. Car. 1.

61. The Two next Justices (Quar. Annus) in or next to the limits where the Parish Church is, may take order as well for the punishment of the Mother and reputed Father of a Bastard Child, as also for the relief of the Parish where it is born, by charging the Mother and Father with the payment of mony weekly towards the keeping of it, or otherwise; And if the Mother or Father perform not the Justices order therein, they are to suffer imprisonment without Bayl, except he or she give Security to perform, or else to appear at the next Sessions, and abide the order of the Justices there, if any be made there, and if none be made, then to stand to the first order.

62. Note, That this Order may be made by any two Justices of the County (Quor. unus) as it is held by some, but most properly by the two next Justices; and the question must be about such a Bastard Child as is like to be a charge to the Parish; and the Security must be given to the Parish where the Child is born, to secure the Parish from the charge of the Child or to keep the Child: it must be a Parish within the County where the two Justices have power, and the Order must be certain how long the Reputed Father

Father must keep the Child, secure the Parish, &c. and it must be made against the person that is suspected to have gotten the Bastard Child, and not against another person to contribute towards it, because it was gotten in his house, &c. and the Order must express the Child by the name of a Bastard Child, and not the reputed Child of such an one; and the Justices for the better discovery of the matter, may upon Oath examine the Mother herself concerning the reputed Father, the time, &c. *Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 11. fo. 37. 18. Eliz. Ch. 3. 7. Jac. Ch. 4. See Steel's Rep. fo. 154. 245, 246, 247, 388. and see Pridgeon's case. Hil. 9. Car. 1. B. R. and Slater's case. Pasch. 13. Car. 1. B. R. Cro. 63. Where the Putative Father or Mother of a Bastard Child shall run out of a Parish or County, and leave their Children upon the charge of the Parish, having Estates sufficient to discharge the Parish, there the Churchwardens and Overseers of the Poor of the place where the Child is born, may seize so many of the Goods and Chattels, or Rents of his other Lands, for the discharge of the Parish, and bringing up and providing for the Child, as any two Justices shall order; and thereupon the Sessions is to dispose and sell the Goods and Chattels; and the Sessions may order the Officers aforesaid, what they shall receive of the Rents and Lands also for the purposes aforesaid. 14. ## CHAP. V.

The Overseers Office in making of Rates, and passing Accounts.

64. THese Officers, or the greater part of them ( for the doing and performing of the things they have in charge) may raise weekly, or otherwise by Taxation of every Parson, Vicar, and other Occupier of Land, House, or Tythes, Cole-mines, or saleable Underwoods, within the Parish, Town, &c. such a sum as they shall think fit; and this Rate they must have allowed and confirmed under the hands of Two Justices (Quor. unus) and then by Warrant from them, or any any other Two Justices ( Quor. unus ) they may levy, by distress and sale of the Goods of the party refusing to pay, the said Tax, rendring the Overplus to the owners; and in Default of Distress two such Justices may commit the party to Prison, there to remain without bayl till it be discharged by him. 43. El. Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 4. fo. 97. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Poor People.

65. Now these Rates ought to be well and truly made, according to mens visible Estates, real and personal, within the place only, and not for any Estate elsewhere; at Lincoln Assizes. 9. Car. 1. by Justice Hutton and Crook.

66. Note, That a Parish in Reputation shall be a Parish within this Law; so that if A. be an ancient Parish that hath Officers in it, and there be a Town within this Parish, which for a long time hath been used and reputed as a Parish, and hath all Parochial Rights, as Churchwardens, &c. here this place may be Rated as a Parish towards the Poor. Hutton's Rep. fo. 93. & M. 3. Car. B. R. Hilton & Paul's case. Cra. 3. Part. Rep.

67. This Tax must be set upon the Tenants and Occupiers of Lands, and not upon the Land-Lords living within or without the Parish; for the Tenant only is chargeable for the Land. Bulstred's 1. Part. Rep. fo. 354.

68. The Parson, having a full Tenth Part of the Profits of the place, may be rated to a Tenth Part. Resol. Judges. 1633. Sect. 32.

69. He that doth occupy Lands in his own hands, lying in several Parishes, he must be charged in every Parish for his Land lying therein, only according to the proportion thereof, and no more, but for his personal Estate it seems reasonable he should be charged for it in the place where his person is; All Lands Ancients Demeasns Guildable, and Copyhold are to be charged with these Rates, which ought to be according to the value, or by the pound, and not according to the quantity. See Consuetudo tollis Legem.

70. The Rate for Stock or Goods is thought reasonable to be set after the proportion of Lands (viz.) an 100 pound in stock to be rated after 3. or 6. pound a year in Land.

71. Note, That in some special cases a man may be rated beyond his ability, as where one brings a charge upon a Parish; or under any pretence brings in a man that may be chargeable in a Parish, he may, if there be cause for this, be raised in his Rate to the full value of his Estate, and so was the opinion of Sir Nicholas Hide. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 97.

72. Where the Inhabitants of any Parish are not able to relieve their Poor, any two Justices Quor. unus may tax other Parishes and places within the Hundred, yea, the whole Hundred, if need require; and where that is not sufficient, the Justices in their Sessions may tax the County in part, or wholly at their discretions. 43. El. Ch. 2. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. Poor People. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 12.

73. If any persons find themselves agrieved in any Tax or other Act done by the Overseers, or by the Justices of Peace, they are to be Relieved at the Quarter Sessions. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 97. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. Poor People.

74. The Father, Grandfather, Mother, Grandmother, and Children of every poor person, shall be assessed to wards their Relief, as the Justices of the Peace in their Sessions of the Peace in the County where such Father, &c. dwells shall limit and appoint, in pain to forfeit 20 s. a Month to the use of the Poor, to be levied by distress and sale as aforesaid, and for want of distress to be committed to Prison till the Forfeiture be paid. 43. El. Ch. 2. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. Poor People. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 98.

75. Head Officers in Cities and Corporate Towns, and Aldermen of London, have in their several Precincts like Authority that Justices of Peace have in their Counties, and no other Justices of Peace are to enter and intermeddle there. Wingates Abr. Stat. Tit. Poor People. 43. El. Ch. 2.

76. If any Parish shall extend into two Counties, or part thereof to lie in any City or Corporate Town where they have Justices; Then the Justices of every County, &c. are to intermeddle only within their own limits; and every of them respectively within their limits are to execute this Law concerning the nomination of Overseers, binding of Apprentices, granting Warrants Warrants to Levy Taxations, taking Accounts of Overseers, and committing such as refuse to account or to pay their Arrearages; and yet the Overseers shall without dividing themselves, execute their Office in all places within the said Parish, but shall give up Accounts to the Justices, or Head Officers of both places. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Title. Poor People. 43. El. Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 97. 98.

77. These Officers within four days after the end of their year, and that other Officers are nominated, are to yield up a true account to two Justices (Quor. unus) of these things following, 1. What sums of money they have received or rated, and not received? 2. What stock of Ware or Stuff is in their hands, or in the hands of any of the Poor? 3. What Apprentices they have put out, and bound according to the Statute? 4. What Poor they have set to work or relieved? 5. What Poor they have suffered to wander and beg out of their Town, or in the Highways, or in their Town without their directions? 6. Whether they meet monthly to consider of the things belonging longing to their Office? 7. Whether they made their Rates indifferently upon all men, according to their ability? 8. Whether they have endeavoured to gather and levy such Assessments? 9. Whether they have neglected the Justices Warrants to them, or any of them directed for the levying of any forfeiture according to the Stat. 43. El. Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 96.

78. Now if the Churchwardens or Overseers, or any of them, shall refuse to make and yield a true and perfect Account to the said Justices, of all such mony and of all such stock as aforesaid, any two Justices (Quor. unus) may commit them to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bayl, till they have made a true account, and satisfied and paid to the new Overseers so much of the said Sum or Stock, as upon the said Account shall be remaining in his or their hands, &c. And if they make a false account, they may be bound over to the Assizes or Sessions, and there an Indictment may be preferred against them. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 96.

79. Also if any of the Churchwardens den or Overseers shall refuse, or deny to pay or deliver over to the new Overseers the Arrearages (Sums of Money or Stock) which shall be in their hands, and due and behind upon their Account to be made as aforesaid, any two such Justices of Peace may make their Warrant to the present or subsequent Churchwardens and Overseers, or any of them, to levy the same by distress and sale of the Offenders Goods, rendering to the Parties the Overplus; and in default of such Distress, any two Justices of the Peace may commit him or them to the Common Gaol, there to remain without Bayl, until payment or delivery of the said Sum, Arrearages, and Stock be made. 43. El. Ch. 2. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 96.

80. If any such Stock shall be in the hands of any of the Poor to work, and such Poor shall refuse to deliver the same, two such Justices may make the like Warrant, to levy the same by distress, and for lack thereof may commit such Offenders to the Gaol as aforesaid. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 40. fo. 96.

81. And for these aforesaid, and all other other Negligences of the Churchwardens and Overseers, in the execution of their Office, about the Poor, &c. every of them for every default he makes forfeits 20 s. which Default must be proved either by the Offenders own Confession, or by Examination of Witnesses; and it is to be levied by the new Churchwardens and Overseers, or one of them, by Warrant from two Justices, as aforesaid, by Distress and Sale of the Offenders Goods; and for want of Distress, two such Justices may commit Offenders to the Gaol, there to remain without Bayl, till the said Forfeitures shall be paid, which said Forfeitures are to be employed to the use of the Poor of the same Parish.

OF

---

CHAP. I.

Of the Choyce of these Officers, how many Sorts of ways there are, with some few General Cases concerning High-ways.

1. THese Supravisors or Surveyors of the High-ways are Officers yearly chosen by the Constables and Churchwardens of every Parish: and by the 14. Car. 2.
the Churchwardens, Constables, or Tythingmen

Tythingmen of every Parish, Town or Hamlet, for the time being, are upon Monday or Tuesday in Easter week, with the advice of the major part of the Inhabitants to choose two or more sufficient Inhabitants of the Parish, Town, or Hamlet, to be Surveyors of the High-ways for the year following, and they are to give notice thereof in writing to the persons chosen next Sunday after; and for default of such choyce the Constables, Churchwardens, and Inhabitants of every Parish, Town, or Hamlet, shall forfeit and loose 5. l. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 6.

2. And after choyce made of these Officers, as aforesaid, and notice given them, they are forthwith to take the Office upon them, in pain to forfeit 20 s. 2, 3. P. M. Ch. 8. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways.

3. The Constables and Churchwardens are then also to appoint six days betwixt then and Midsummer, to be set apart for the amendment of the High-ways, and must give publick notice thereof in the Church the next Sunday after Easter, 5. El. Ch. 13. 23. P. M. Ch. 8. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways.

4. Note,

4. Note, That there are three kind of ways, (to wit) first a Foot way, called Iter quod est jus eundi, vel ambulandi hominis. Secondly, a Foot way, and an Horse way, called velus ab agendo, and this vulgarly is called a Pack or Drift way, and is both Foot way and Horse way. Thirdly, a Cart way, &c. called Via or Aditus, (and this containeth the other two, and a Cart way also) for this is jus eundi, vehendi, & vehiculum & jumentum ducendi; and this is twofold, to wit Via Regia, the Kings High-way for all men, & communis Strata, belonging to a City or Town, or between Neighbours. Dalt. J.P.Ch. 26. fo. 67.

5. Note, That the Kings High-way (or via Regia) leading either to the Market, or from Town to Town, the Freehold and soil thereof, and the interest of all Trees, and other such Profits thereupon growing, do belong to the Lord of the Soil, or the Lord of the Mannor; and therefore such Lords are chargeable to cut down the Trees and Bushes growing in such Highways; and it is called the Kings High-way, for that the King at all times hath therein passage for Himself and his People,

People, and may punish all Nufances therein, though otherwise the Interest be in the Lord to bring his Action for digging therein, or other like Trespafs there done. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 68. and see Rolls Cases, 1 part. fo. 392. 2. E. 4. 9. 8. E. 4. 9. 17. E. 3. fo. 43. Bro. Chemine, 10. 11. & Leet. 3. 27. H. 6. fo. 9. 8. H. 7. fo. 5.

6. Generally the owner of the Soil on both sides of the way shall have the Trees growing in the way: But the Lord of a Rape, within which there are Ten Mannors, may prescribe to have all the Trees growing within any High-way within such Rape, although the Mannor or Soil adjoyning belong to another person, for the usage and taking of the Trees is a good badge of Ownership. P. 11. Jac. B. R. between Sir Tho. Pellam, & Wiat, & Blake, Rolls Cases. 1. Part. fo. 392.

7. Where any person shall inclose any part of the High-way, such person shall be charged to amend the High-way next adjoyning to the said Inclosure. And if one man have inclosed on one side, and another man on the other side, they shall be both charged to mend the the same way. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 69.

and see *Tr. 10. Car. 1. B. R. Sir Edward Duncomb's case, Cro. 3. Part. Rep. & 6.
7 ac. & 19. 7 ac. so Resolved. Rolls Cases,
1. Part. fo. 390.*

8. But otherwise generally High-ways must be sufficiently amended at the charge of the whole Town: And it is not enough for the Inhabitants to do their full Six dayes work yearly, except their ways be all well and sufficiently repaired thereby; For if all their said ways be not sufficiently amended, the whole Town may be Indicted therefore; and if Six days work in the year will not serve to amend them, the Surveyors may, yea, must appoint more days. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 69. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 6.

9. The owner of Lands, if he be not the occupier thereof, ought not to be charged towards the repair of the common High ways; but the Tenant who occupies the lands is to be charged. Hill. 11. Car. 1. Br. in one Foster's case, per Curiam. Rolls Cases. 1. Part. fo. 390.

CHAP. II.

The Duty of the Surveyors about Setting and Calling the Parishioners to the Common days works for the High-ways, and about taking and digging for Gravel, Chalk, Sand, &c. See fol. 58, 59.

10. THese Officers are to see that the Parishioners do their work on the days appointed, and that according to these Rules following, viz. every person having in his own Occupation a Plough Land in Tillage or in Pasture in the same Parish, or keeping there a Plough or Draught, shall find and send on every day to the place appointed by the Surveyors, one Wayn or Cart provided, after the fashion of the Country, with Oxen, &c. fit for the carriage, and with necessary Tools fit for the work, and with two able men, who are there to do such work with their Wayns, &c. as they shall be appointed (by the Surveyors) by the space of eight hours every of the said six days, on pain of 10 s. every day default is made, 2, 3. P. M. Ch. 8. Rastall. 199. Lamb.

Lamb. 459. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tir. High-ways, Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 68.

11. And every other Householder, Cottager, and Labourer of the Parish, Town, &c. (able to labour and being no hired Servant by the year) must by himself, or some other able man, be then and there ready to work every of the said six days, by the space of eight hours, as aforesaid, where they shall be appointed by the Surveyors, under pain to forfeit 12 d. for every day they make Default. 2. 3. P. M. Ch. 8.

12. Note, that all persons being chargeable but as Cottagers by the 2. & 3. P. M. yet if they be in Subsidy 3 l. in Goods, or 40 shillings in Lands, or above, they must find two able men to work every of the said six days. 18. El. Ch. 9. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tir. High-ways. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 68.

12. If any of the Carriages shall not be thought needful by the said Surveyors upon any of the said days, they may appoint in stead of a Team, two able men to work, as aforesaid, who shall not fail in pain that the party that should send them shall forfeit 12 pence for every day that either of them, them makes Default. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways. 2. 3. P. M. Ch. 8. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 68.

13. He that shall occupy a Plowland in Tillage or Pasture, lying in several Parishes, shall be chargeable only in the Parish where he dwelleth, and he that occupieth several Plowlands in several Parishes, shall be charged in each Town or Parish where such Land lyeth (to wit) to find in each Town or Parish one Cart furnished as aforesaid, though he be no Inhabitant there. 18. El. Ch. 9. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 68.

14. Now for the further opening of these things, note, that it is said that a Plow Land is not of any certain content, but ordinarily it is so much as one Plough may Plough in one year, which in some Countries is more, and in some less, according to the heaviness of the Soil. Co. 9. Rep. fo. 124. Co. on Lit. fo. 69. & vide Lamb. verb. Hide 35. H. 6. fo. 29.

15. And note, That a Plow Land or Carve of Land may contain House, Meadow, Pasture, and Wood: And if one have so much of this as will keep a Plough and yield Tillage for it, if part part of it were cared in this case, it seems he is to send his Plough. vide Co. 4. Lib. Rep. fo. 37. b. & 9. Rep. fo. 122.

16. He that hath a Plough Land, and no Plough, but doth suffer his Land to lie fresh, yet he is to find a Plough for this work, and so it hath been agreed by the Judges. Mieb. 21. Jac. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 72.

17. He that keepeth a Plough or Draught for carriage, although he occupieth little or no Land, but carrieth or plougeth for other men, yet it seems he is to send his Cart to the High-ways; and if a Man keep only two Horses and a Cart for his own business, in this case it seems he is to come with his Cart and two Horses with a man to manage them. Vide Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 72.

18. It is held by some, that so many Ploughs or Draughts men have, and use frequently about their own business in Summer; so many they are to bring with them to the High-ways, so that if a man have one Plough and five or six Horses, and shall plough seven or eight score Acres of Land, and shall usually go in the Summer time with two two Carts or Draughts; in this case, it seems he is to come with two Carts or Draughts to this Service: And he that occupieth 40 or 50 Acres of Land, and keepeth only three Horses, and one Draught or Cart, he is to come with one Draught or Cart. vide Dalr. J.P.Ch.26.fo.72.

19. Note, That an Indictment by the Common Law may be brought against any Parish, for not repairing their High-ways, and so they are bound to make them good at their peril; and if Six days will not serve, the Surveyors may appoint more, and charge all persons within their limits who are chargeable by Law to come to the work, and if he who is to send a Team neglect, he forfeits 10*s.* and the labourer that neglects to come forfeits 18*d.* for every day, but then by 14 Car.2, Ch.6. the Surveyors are to pay them for their work for all the days above six days, according to the Rates of the Country; and if they cannot agree, the next Justice of Peace living out of the Parish is to determine the business between them. 14 Car.2.Ch.6.

20. These Officers may, if they see cause, cause, for the amendment of the High-ways, take and carry away so much of the Rubbish, and smallest broken Stones already digged, of any man's Quarry lying within the same Parish without leave of the owner, as they shall think needful, or gather the loose Stones lying disperſed in any mans grounds; But they may not without Licence dig in any mans Quarry for new Stones, nor take the great Stones already digged; and if there be no ſuch Rubbiſh to be found in any mans Quarry within the ſaid Parish, then may they enter into any mans ſeveral ground within the Parish, lying near the place where the ways are decayed, and there (if they ſee any hopes of finding materials fit for the Reparation thereof) without leave of the owner they may dig for Sand, Stones, Gravel, &c. ſo that it be not in the Houſes, Gardens, Orchards, or Meadows of any man; for they are not to come there without Licence of the owner; and in ſuch place where they may dig without leave, they are not to make a pit above ten yards in breadth or length; and they are to take care that the place be filled up again gain at the charge of the Parish within one month after, upon pain to forfeit five marks to the owner of the ground to be recovered by Action of Debt, and this is by the 5. El. Ch. 13.

21. The same power also is granted to Surveyors by the 14. Car. 2. Ch. 6. to dig for Gravel, Chalk, Sand, Stones, &c, in any man's ground in the Parish next adjoyning to the place where the ways are in decay, if there be not sufficient in the same Parish; Provided it be not in the House, Garden, Orchard, Court, Yard, Park with Deer in it, or in the Meadow of such party; and this they may do without paying any thing for the same Sand, Gravel, &c. only Damages to the party for the carriage of the same over his Grass, &c. and the pits and holes are to be filled up in such manner, and under such penalties as are prescribed in the 5. El. in the Section, next before shewed. 14. Car. 2. Ch. 6.

CHAP. III.

The Surveyors Duty about cutting down Bushes, Trees, and Scouring of Ditches in the High-ways; and also touching Presentments and Inquiries about Defaults, passing of Accounts, Travelling of Waggons, Wayns, &c.

22. IF the owners of the Grounds next adjoyning to the Highways do not keep their Hedges low, and cut down their Trees and Bushes growing in the same ways, they forfeit ten shillings, *Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit.
High-ways. 5. El. Ch. 13. 8. El. Ch. 10.*

23. And he that scowrs not his Ditches in the ground next adjoyning to the ground that is next the Highway, to the end the water may have the better passage out of the High-way, shall forfeit 12 pence for every Rod so left unscowred. 18. El. Ch. 10. Wingate ubi supra.

24. If any scowr his Ditch by the High-way side, and throw the scowring thereof into the High-way, and suffer it to lie there six months, he forfeits for every load thereof 12 pence; and the Surveyors are to make Sluces where such banks have been heretofore made, for carrying away the water out of the High-way. 18. El. Ch. 10.

25. Every Surveyor may cause any Water-course, or Spring of Water being in the High-way, (within their Parish) to be turned into another mans several Ditch or Ground next adjoyning to the said way, in such manner as by the discretion of the said Surveyor shall be thought meet. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo 70.

26. Note, That the Forfeitures of the Act of the 18. El. 10. must be levied by the Surveyors for the time being (by Warrant from the Justices before whom the party shall be convict) by Distress and Sale of Goods, which forfeitures are to be employed towards the amendment of the High-ways; and if the Surveyors neglect to do it within one year after the offence committed, then the Constables and Churchwardens by like Warrant may do it. 18. El. Ch. 10. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways.

27. The Surveyors or one of them are to present to the next Justice of Peace every default upon the 2 & 3. P. & M. Ch. 8. & 5. El. Ch. 13. within one month after it shall be made, in pain of 40 s. and the Justice is in pain of 5 l. to certify the same at the next Quarter Sessions, where the Justices have power to inquire of the Default, and shall set such Fine upon the Delinquents, as they or two of them (Quor. unus) shall think fit. 5. El. Ch. 13. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 26. fo. 70.

28 Note, That the Presentment of a Justice of Peace in Sessions, upon his own knowledge, shall be a good Conviction, whereupon the Justices in Sessions, or any two of them (Quor. unus) may assess a Fine, as well as upon a verdict of Twelve men; but in this case the Delinquent shall be admitted to his Traverse as in other cases. 5. El. Ch. 13. vide Rastall. 199.

29. The Defaults and Offences upon these Stat. 2 & 3. P. M. 5. El. & 18. Eliz. are inquirable by the Justices of Peace in their Sessions, or by Stewards in Leets, either of which have power to set Fines upon Offenders at their discretions; of which Fines Indented Estreats (in the Sessions under the Hand and Seal of the Clerk of the Peace, in the Leet under the Hand and Seal of the Steward) shall be delivered within six weeks after Michaelmas, one part of the Estreate to the Bayliff or High Constable of the Liberty, and the other part to the Constables and Churchwardens of the Parish where the Offenders live. 2, 3. P. M. Ch. 8. 5. Eliz. Ch. 13. 18. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways.

30. And these Estreats shall be a sufficient Warrant for the Bayliff or Chief Constable of the Liberty to levy the said Offences by way of Distress; and if no Distress can be found, or the party do not pay the Fine within 20 days after lawful demand thereof, he or they shall forfeit double so much; all which Fines and Forfeitures are to be employed and bestowed towards the amendment of the High-ways in the Parish where the offences are committed. Wingate's Abr. Stat. Tit. High-ways, 2, 3. P. M. Ch. 8.

31. The Bayliff, or High Constable, shall yearly betwixt the first of March and and last of April, render an Account unto the Constables and Churchwardens, who have the other parts of the Excheats of the Fines, of what money they have received in pain of 40 shillings; and the said Constables and Churchwardens have power to call the Bayliff or High Constable before two or more Justices of the Peace (Quorumvis) to pass his Account, who have power to commit him, until he have satisfied all the Arrearages by him received, save 8 d. in the pound for his own Fee, and 12 d. in the pound for the Clerk of the Peace, or Steward of the Leet; and in this case the succeeding Constables and Churchwardens have the same power as their Predecessors had. 2, 3. P. M. Ch. 80.

32. Two Justices of the Peace by the Stat. 18. El. may take Accounts of the Surveyors of the ways, and of the petty Constables and Churchwardens, for such Forfeitures (within that Statute) as they have Levied. 18. El. Ch. 10. Dalt. 7. B. Ch. 26. fo. 71.

*Several Cases about the Repairs of Bridges, with the names of the Statutes which

61. WHere a Common Bridge in the Kings High-way is in decay, and that it cannot be proved or known, who, nor what Lands are chargeable to the repairing thereof; in this case Four Justices of the Peace (whereof one to be of the Quorum) within the Shire or Riding wherein such decayed Bridges be, and if they be in a City or Town Corporate, then four such Justices of Peace there, may, within the limits of their several Commissions, call before them the Constables, or two of the most honest Inhabitants of every Town and Parish within the Shire, Riding, City, or Town Corporate, wherein such Bridge or any parcel thereof shall happen to be; and the Justices (upon the appearance of the Constables or other Inhabitants, and with their assents) may tax every Inhabitant in any such City, Town, or Parish

Parish within their limits, to such reasonable sum of mony as by their discretions they shall think convenient aswell for the repairing of such Bridge, and also for the making and repairing of the High-ways by the space of 300 Foot next adjoyning to the ends of any such Bridge. 22. H. 8. Ch. 5. Dalt 7. P. Ch. 13. fo. 40. Co. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 701, 702.

62. But note where the Franchise, City, or Burrough is a County of it self, and hath not four or more Justices of the Peace, whereof one or more are of the Quorum, in this case no other Justices of the Peace of any Shire or County have any power to meddle there by this Act, but such decay must be reformed by the Common Law by such Remedies, as they were before the making of this Statute of 22. H. 8. Co. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 702.

63. And note that this Taxation ought not to be made by the Justices without the consent of the Constables or Inhabitants, nor by them without the Justices; and this Tax ought to be upon every Inhabitant in particular, and not to be set upon the Hundred, Parish, Town, &c. for then one or few might be distrained upon for the whole. Co. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 704.

64. After such Taxation made as aforesaid, the said Justices of Peace shall cause the Names and Sums of every particular person so by them Taxed, to be written in a Roll indented in Parchment for every Hundred, and sealed with their Seals. Co. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 704. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 13. fo. 40.

65. And the said Justices may make two Collectors of every Hundred, for the Collecting of all such Sums of Money, by the said Justices set and taxed; which Collectors receiving the one part of the Roll indented, have power thereby to collect all the Sums of Money therein contained, and if refusal be made upon demand, then to distrain and sell such distress, rendring the overplus to the owner if any be. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 13. fo. 40. 22. H. 8. Ch. 5. Co. 2. Part. Inst. fo. 705.

66. The said Justices also are to appoint two Surveyors, who shall see such decayed Bridges and ways repaired and amended from time to time as often as need shall require, to whose hands hands the Collectors must pay the monies by them received. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 13. fo. 40. 22. H. 8. Ch. 5.

67. And the said Collectors and Surveyors, and their Executors and Administrators, and every of them shall from time to time make a true Account to the said Justices of Peace, of the Receipts, Payments, and Expences of the said Sums of Mony; and if any of them refuse so to do, then the said Justices of Peace from time to time by their discretions, may make out process against the said Collectors and Surveyors, their Executors and Administrators by Attachment, Precept, or Warrant, under their Hands and Seals, returnable at their General Sessions of the Peace; and the said Justices may allow such reasonable Costs and Charges to the said Surveyors and Collectors upon their Account, as to them shall seem convenient. 22. H. 8. Ch. 5. Dalt. 7. P. Ch. 13. fo. 40.

68. If any such Bridge be wholly in a City, or other Corporate Town, the Inhabitants of the said City or Corporate Town must repair it; and where such Bridge lies out of such City or Corporate Town, the same must be made by the Inhabitants of the Shire or Riding within which the same Bridge shall be; and if part of the Bridge be in one Shire or Riding, City, or Corporate Town, and part in another, then every of them shall be charged to make and repair such part as shall lie and be within their own limits. 22. 70. By the Common Law some persons were bound to repair Bridges, Ratione tenuræ suæ Terrarum, &c. and this was binding, into whose hands soever the Estate did come; but they which have Lands on the one side, or on the other, or on both, are not bound in Common Right to repair the same. 44. 74. If a man Erect a Mill for his own particular profit, and cut a new course for the water to come to it, and makes a new Bridge over the same, and the Kings Subjects use to ride over the same as over a common Bridge; such Bridge ought to be repaired by him who hath the Mill, and not by the County, because he erected it for his own benefit. 8 E.2. B. R. adjudged for Bow Bridge and Channel Bridge against the Priour of Stratford. Rolls Cases. 1. Part. fo. 368.

 diers and Mariners.

THese Treasurers are certain Officers appointed by the Justices of Peace, to have Ch. 3. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Captains.*

2. Ch. 3.* but it is provided further by the 14. Car. 2. Ch 9. that the Justices Justices may tax every parish more than the Rates abovesaid, so as it exceed not two shillings and six pence, nor be under three pence per week. And these sums, thus taxed, must be assessed in every Parish by the Parishioners (or in their Default) by the Constables and Churchwardens (or in their Default) by the next Justice or Justices of the Peace. 43. El. Ch. 3.

Ch. 3.*

5. The Maimed Souldier or Mariner which was prest, shall repair (if he be able to Travel) to the Treasurers of the County where he was prest; if he were not prest, then to the Treasurers of the County where he was born, or where he last dwelt by the space of three years, at his Election; but if he be not able to Travel, then to the Treasurers of the County where he Lands, and he is to bring with him a Certificate under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Commander, or of the Captain under whom he served, containing the particular of his hurts and services, ces, which Certificate shall also be allowed by the Muster Master, or the Receiver General of the Rolls for the Muster, under one of their hands. 43. El. Ch. 3.

6. Then upon such a Certificate, the Treasurers aforesaid may allow the party Relief to maintain him till the next Quarter Sessions, and then the major part of the Justices may allow him a Pension, which the Treasurers must pay him Quarterly, until it shall be revoked or altered by the said Justices; and this allowance is not to exceed 10 pounds per ann. to a common Souldier, nor 15 pounds to an Officer under a Lieutenant, nor 20 pounds to a Lieutenant. 43. *El. from the Muster Master, or Receiver General of the Muster Rolls. Wingate's Stat. Tit. Captains and Soldiers. 43. El. Ch. 3.

8. If any Souldier or Mariner beg, or counterfeit a Certificate, he shall be punished as a common Rogue, and shall loose his Pension, if he have any. 43. El. Ch. 3. Wingate ubi supra.

be adjudged meet by two next Justices of the Peace of such County; and the said Relief is to be paid out of the Surplusage of such Stock of Main-of the said Treasurers after such Pensions, and Payment of them made;

And of which surplusage and allowance made unto such Widows and Orphans, the said Treasurers shall give account from time to time, and the same distribute as by the Justices shall be directed. 14. Car. 2.
Ch. 9.

12. The Treasurers are to Register
all their Receipts and Disbursements,

13. If any Treasurer wilfully refuse to give Relief in the cases aforesaid, the Justices of Peace in their Sessions may set a Fine upon him, which may be levied by Distress and Sale of his Goods. Wingate ubi supra. 43. Eliz. Ch. 3.
